These mobile eateries are serving up some of our favorite macaroni and cheese—with a twist!

DALE'S FRIED PIES

KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE

Chicago transplant Dale Mackey started Dale's Fried Pies last summer in Knoxville, Tennessee, and has been cranking out more than 30 hand-pie variations at markets, festivals, and private events ever since. If you get a chance to visit her mobile booth, be sure to try the Chipotle Mac and Cheese. It's handmade with a cornmeal crust, filled with smoked chipotle and creamy three-cheese mac, and fried to perfection.

MELT FOOD TRUCK

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

After stumbling across a variation of a grilled macaroni and cheese in San Francisco, the minds behind the MELT grilled cheese food truck in Birmingham, Alabama, decided the sandwich needed some Southern love. And so the Mac 'n Cheese melt was born. With Cheddar, Parmesan, mozzarella, and Monterey Jack cheeses on grilled sourdough with penne pasta and béchamel, this sandwich is as good as it gets. That is until you try their off-menu option of combining the Mac 'n Cheese melt with the Southern Comfort slow-roasted barbecue pork sandwich. Trust us, your mouth has never been so happy.
