

The Evangelical Crackup?

The Future of the Evangelical-Republican Coalition

Paul A. Djupe and Ryan L. Claassen, Editors

Table of Contents

Chapter	Title	Pages
	Introduction — Paul A. Djupe and Ryan Claassen
Section I – Activists, Candidates, and the Partisanship of Evangelicals
1	Evangelicals Were On Their Own in the 2016 Elections — Paul A. Djupe and Brian R. Calfano
2	Evangelical Activists and the Evolution of the Republican Party — Geoffrey Layman and Mark Brockway
3	Understanding the Political Motivations of Evangelical Voters — Ryan Claassen
4	Evangelical Elites and the Challenge of Pluralism — Kevin den Dulk
5	Divided Over Rights: Competing Evangelical Visions for Twenty-First Century America — Andrew R. Lewis
6	Rethinking the State-Level Strategy: The Christian Right and Left in the States — Kimberly Conger
Section II – Religious Change and the Politics of Evangelicals
7	Classifying the Evangelical Crackup: How Protestants Organize Themselves — Tobin Grant and David Searcy
8	The Scope and Boundaries of Evangelical Identity: Comparing Liberal Young Evangelicals to Other Young Liberals — Jeremy Castle
9	The Rise of Latino Evangelicals — J. Benjamin Taylor, Sarah Allen Gershon, and Adrian D. Pantoja
10	We Find Truth by Talking: Comparing Authority in Evangelicalism and the Emergent Church — Ryan P. Burge
11	The Shifting Social Networks of Evangelicals? — Paul A. Djupe, Jacob R. Neibeisel, and Anand Edward Sokebey
12	Sowing The Seeds of Discord: Sources of Division Among White Evangelical Protestants — Jubem Navarro-Rivera, Daniel A. Cox, Robert P. Jones, and Paul A. Djupe
Section III – Legal, Constitutional Battles and Morality Politics
13	Local religious right policy success: Innovation and Diffusion of 'In God We Trust' County Initiatives — Tobin Grant and Joshua Mitchell
14	A Match Made in Heaven? Linking Christian Legal Advocacy with Conservative Politics — Daniel Bennett

15 “God is a pretty fair guy”: Evangelicalism and Economic Attitudes
—Ronald J. McGavran and Elizabeth Oldmixon

Section IV – The Lasting Political Contributions of Evangelicalism

16 “No One Loves the Bible More Than Me”: The Ironic Continuities of Political Evangelicalism
—Robert Wuthnow

17 The Evangelical Consolidation
—John Green

18 What if...Evangelicals and the Future of American Politics
—Ryan L. Claassen and Paul A. Djupe