

Gendered Publication Strategies v2 - Copy

Q1 Thank you for agreeing to take this survey. We are specifically interested in learning about your experiences concerning publishing. Please recall that this survey is confidential, and that we will only analyze the data in the aggregate. This survey is voluntary, and the set of items will take most people around 10 minutes to complete. You may stop at any time or skip any particular question, though of course we hope you persevere and complete the entire instrument. We will attempt to publish the results in scholarly journals and a social science blog such as the Monkey Cage Blog at the Washington Post. If you have any questions or concerns about the survey, please contact us: -- Paul Djupe at djupe@denison.edu, Amy Erica Smith at aesmith2@iastate.edu, or Anand Sokhey at anand.sokhey@colorado.edu. Do you consent to participate?

- Yes (1)
- No (2)

Condition: No Is Selected. Skip To: End of Survey.

Q2 Have you submitted a manuscript or grant/fellowship proposal to any journal, press, university, or granting agency in the past year? Please note how many manuscripts or proposals you have submitted in each category. Please count only original, not R&R (revise and resubmit), submissions. Please provide a year's worth of information, whether from a calendar or academic year. Since we are trying to compile the most accurate report, we urge you to consult any records you may have. If you have a recent annual report, for instance, please draw on that document to inform your responses. Please click in the slider space to record an answer. (Please note that you still need to click on the slider to report a response of zero for an item.)

- _____ Book manuscript (1)
- _____ Book chapter (4)
- _____ Article/note for journal peer review (2)
- _____ Manuscript for journal EDITOR review (e.g., a book review) (3)
- _____ Journalism/blog (e.g., the Monkey Cage) (5)
- _____ Grant proposal (INTERNAL) (6)
- _____ Grant proposal (EXTERNAL) (7)

Q3 Now we'd like you to think about your publications and grants in the past year. Please only include publications that have appeared in print, or in EarlyView (i.e., a version the journal published online ahead of print). How many publications have you had of each type? Please select your answers using the slider bars below.

_____ Books (1)

_____ Peer-reviewed book chapters (2)

_____ Peer-reviewed journal articles (3)

_____ Non-peer-reviewed articles or book chapters (4)

_____ Grants received (5)

Q4 Now, for the next several questions, we'd like you to think of the most recent manuscript you submitted to a journal. Was it:

- An original submission? (1)
- An R&R (Revise & Resubmit)? (2)
- N/A: I have never submitted a manuscript to a journal. (3)

If N/A: I have never submitted... Is Selected, Then Skip To End of Block

Q18 Now we'd like to shift away from that specific project, and move to your research work in general. Many of these questions are focused on the journal review process. But, where items are asking about your feelings with respect to peer review more generally, please feel free to draw upon your experience with book manuscripts if that is your academic currency. To what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statements about the journal publication process?

	Strongly Agree (1)	Agree (2)	Neither Agree nor Disagree (3)	Disagree (4)	Strongly Disagree (5)
I submit my work to the discipline's top journals first. (1)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
When my work is rejected, it's usually a sign it has major flaws. (2)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I send out imperfect papers and use the review process to get feedback. (3)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
When my work is rejected, I worry that I am not a good academic. (4)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I am able to get comments from scholars who are likely to review my research. (5)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
When my	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

work is rejected, I tend to get angry. (6)
When my work is rejected, it's often because I didn't get the right reviewer pool or editor. (7)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I feel anxious when I think about the article review process. (8)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I feel proud when I think about the article review process. (9)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I try to send my work to the journal that is most likely to accept it. (10)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
When I get an R&R (invitation to revise and resubmit), I usually find it overwhelming to process the feedback from reviewers and editors. (11)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I enjoy working on R&Rs. (12)	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I have to meet all of the reviewers'	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

demands in order to publish. (13) I have a hard time finishing work on R&Rs. (14)	○	○	○	○	○

Q20 From time to time, scholars ask other people for comments on their research. Thinking back over your recent research projects, please write the FIRST names of the first three people that come to mind who have provided help or feedback on your work, and who are not coauthors on the project for which they provided feedback. If two people have the same first names, please use some other description that you understand, such as "Jane S" vs. "Jane R." It is important to type in first names, as these will appear in the following questions, helping you answer. We will not attempt to identify or contact the people you name.
