SUBJECT: RULE 101, ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

Rule 101 Organizational Structure, is hereby issued superseding all previous rules, special orders, memos and directives on this subject.

See Sections 9.0.1, 9.0.2 and 9.4.

Gregory P. Long
Superintendent In Chief
ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

General Considerations: In order to maintain consistency throughout these Rules, whenever a reference is made to a Commander or Director, it shall be understood that in cases where an employee is assigned within a District or Division, it means the Commander or Director of the District or Division. In cases where an employee is assigned to a Bureau Office, it means the Bureau Chief. In cases where an employee is assigned to an Office that reports directly to the Police Commissioner or the Superintendent-in-Chief, the responsibility shall remain with the head of the Office where the employee is assigned.

Sec. 1 Organization: The Boston Police Department is structured into a series of organizational components that represent functional groupings of employees performing like activities. This structure of the Department provides management with a means of assigning responsibility for performance of a group of functions to a single supervisor or manager and clarifies to whom specific employees are accountable.

Sec. 1.1 Operating Philosophy – Community Policing: Community Policing is the operating philosophy and style of policing of this Department. Community Policing is defined as the police and community sharing responsibility to ensure safe, secure, and livable neighborhoods. Police Officers and the Department create partnerships with citizens and all relevant public and private agencies to identify and successfully solve problems that engender crime, disorder and fear, and that negatively impact the quality of life in a particular community. These problems are removed through the pursuit of these strong partnerships and Department initiatives that balance prevention, intervention, and enforcement. As these conditions are removed, the Department, other agencies, and the public continue to work together to prevent new problems from arising.

Sec. 2 Table of Organization: The structure of the organization is management’s mechanism for bringing together and coordinating resources to accomplish goals and objectives. The structure of the Department can be expected to change with increases or reductions in resources or when the strategies or priorities are altered. The Department has established a Table of Organization that will be updated periodically to reflect these changes. A copy should be maintained in the Rules and Procedures Manual and will be posted permanently in at least one location in each District or Unit accessible to all members of the Department.

Sec. 3 Grades and Ranks: The many sworn ranks and civilian grades within the Boston Police Department reflect the paramilitary structure of the organization. The Boston Police Department is organized under the following ranks, grades or position titles:
Police Commissioner
Sworn:
Superintendent-in-Chief
Superintendent
Deputy Superintendent
Captain or Captain Detective
Lieutenant or Lieutenant Detective
Sergeant or Sergeant Detective
Police Officer or Detective
Probationary Officer

Civilian:
Bureau Chief or Legal Advisor
Assistant Bureau Chief
Division Director
Deputy Division Director, Unit or Office Director
All Other Support Positions

Sec. 3.1 Commissioner’s Absence: Unless otherwise authorized by the Police Commissioner, or upon the vacancy of his/her office without a temporary Police Commissioner having been appointed, the Superintendent-in-Chief will serve as Acting Police Commissioner. If the Superintendent-in-Chief is absent or otherwise unavailable to perform this duty, the Superintendent, Bureau of Field Services will serve as Acting Police Commissioner. If the Superintendent, Bureau of Field Services is absent or otherwise unavailable to perform this duty, the Superintendent who has the most seniority, as determined by their date of appointment to the rank of Superintendent, will serve as Acting Police Commissioner.

Sec. 3.2 Command and Control: In the absence of authorization from the Police Commissioner to the contrary, and subject to the provisions of the succeeding sections of this rule, the senior officer of the highest rank, as determined by his/her date of appointment to that rank, who is present for duty at any place, or on any occasion, shall command.

Sec. 3.2.1 Special Service: For a special service, or for a specified period of regular service, the Police Commissioner may designate an officer to take command without regard to seniority in the same rank.

Sec. 3.2.2 Special Assignment Command: Nothing in this Rule, or elsewhere, shall authorize any officer below the grade of Deputy Superintendent to take command, without authorization from the Police Commissioner, of an Office, Bureau, Area, District, Division or Unit to which he is not regularly assigned. Any officer designated by the Police Commissioner, the Superintendent-in-Chief, a Superintendent or a Deputy Superintendent, to perform a special duty in any part of the City shall be free to carry out their instructions without regard to the authority of any other officer, even though such officer is their superior. An officer with such a special duty to perform may direct specific action be taken by other officers, both Superior Officers and subordinates.
Sec. 3.2.3 District Authority: When service is to be performed wholly within a District, but with the assistance of officers from other Districts, an officer of rank attached to the home District and present for duty, shall have authority over an officer of the same rank, even though senior by appointment to that rank, who is detailed from another District or Unit.

Sec. 4 Definitions: Throughout this Rule, various terms are used to describe functions and groupings within the Department. The following is a list of these common terms and their definitions:

Department: The Boston Police Department.

Bureau: The level of command responsible for coordinating and directing a major grouping of like activities within the Department.

Area: An administrative level of command of the Bureau of Field Services, responsible for two or more geographically defined Districts of the city.

Office: The level of command responsible for coordinating and directing a grouping of specific interrelated functions within the Department.

Division: That portion of a Bureau or Office, which may or may not consist of Units, a Section or Sections, which has responsibility for specific functions.

District: A geographical portion of an Area for which responsibility is assigned to a commander, along with personnel and other resources in sufficient quantity to provide general police service on a 24-hour basis.

Group: A part of an Area, District, Division or Office with personnel and resources assigned ongoing responsibility for a particular function.

Unit/Section: Personnel and resources of an Area, District, Division, Group or Office assigned to perform a special task.

Platoon: A group of officers comprising the work force of a District or Specialized Unit for a particular period of the day and containing its own supervisory and command officers.

Squad: A group of officers under the command of an officer of rank which, in a District, is responsible for patrolling and policing of a neighborhood sector, sectors or beats. In a specialized unit, a squad is responsible for an operational task.

Sector: A geographical area of the city defined by identified neighborhood and/or business section boundaries of variable size within a District, responsibility for which is assigned to one or more patrol units.
Beat: A neighborhood, business section, or portion thereof within a District to which responsibility for patrol purposes is assigned to one or more officers under the direction of a Squad supervisor.
