Infuse Spirits Craft Vodka, Santa Monica

This story all began in a garage. Back in 2012, the young, curious, and creative founder Seth Benhaim had made up his mind. He had decided the world was in desperate need of a new breed of vodka - one that offered an authentic process and flavor to match. One year and a few hundred samples later, Seth launched Infuse Spirits. Just three months after launching, Seth, now 25 years old, was the youngest brand owner to ever win Best-in-Show and Double-Gold at the San Francisco World Spirits Competition.

New Holland Artisan Spirits, Holland

New Holland Brewing co-founder, Brett VanderKamp, discovered world-class rum on a surfing trip to Puerto Rico. He decided he wanted to create spirits that live up to his artful way of life and to share them with the world. The best ingredients, coupled with thoughtful fermentation and a prohibition-era pot still, result in creative and unique spirits.

TEXAS

Southfork Bottling Company, Dallas

Southfork Distilling, whose name pays homage to Ewing's Southfork Ranch, turned to independent blender Henrik Facile for help with what's described as a "high quality bourbon whiskey." He made use of a four-year old expression from somewhere "in the heart of Kentucky's bourbon country" that is 80 proof.

Ogden's Own, Ogden

Touted as "Little Chicago" for years, even Al Capone commented that Ogden was too wild for his tastes. It is from this history that Ogden's Own Distillery has bottled a spirit with the diversity and uniqueness of Two-bit Street's past. With a higher proof and half the sugar, the flavors include a mellow blend of cassia, angostura, anise, cardemom, gentian, yarrow, wormwood, mate, guarana, ginseng, molasses, orange oil, lemon oil, spearmint, pure cane sugar, agave and plum.

CHILE

Control C Pisco, Limari Valley

Born in 1931 Control C is a product elaborated mainly from the finest grapes: Pedro Jimenez and Moscatel. These grapes come from the Limarí Valley in Chile, a land inhabited by the Diaguita Culture, well known for their worship to the sun. Control C is the only pisco which is distilled three times in copper alembics, creating a pure quality product.

Monteru Rare French Brandy, Cognac

The origins of Monteru date back to the late 1700's when the descendant of the Count of Monteru moved to the Cognac region and married his daughter to the son of a cognac merchant. MAISON MONTERU is the first French producer of single grape brandies distilling the most sought-after single varietals. This innovative and modern spirit range combines both authenticity and tradition while creating a new product category of brown spirits somewhere between the most traditional brandies and single malt whiskies.

The Bitter Truth Liqueurs, Munich

The Bitter Truth was established by passionate bartenders Stephan Berg and Alexander Hauck in Bavaria with the intention of supplying bar aficionados with bitters that have not been seen in a century. Both men gained experience making small batch cocktail bitters for the bars they represented. The range of bitters grew steadily and The Bitter Truth expanded their collection to include products like liqueurs and flavored spirits; again, produced using the best quality natural ingredients.

IRELAND

West Cork Distillers, West Cork

WCD was founded in 2003 by three close friends Denis McCarthy, Ger McCarthy & John O'Connell in Union Hall, Ireland. Ger & Denis had been deep sea trawler men whilst John was a research & development scientist. WCD is the most southerly located distillery on the Atlantic Archipelago in Skibbereen, and one of the last independent distilleries in Ireland. WCD triple distills all its Irish whiskey, malts its own barley, and only uses Irish grown grain in the production of its whiskey.

Peloton de la Muerte Mezcal, Oaxaca

A "semi-dry" mezcal with a touch of smoke on the finish that is ideal to sip or in a cocktail. The label of Peloton de la Muerte, which means Brigade of Death, was the flag used by the insurgents during the Mexican Revolution who called themselves "the squadron of death for the suffering Hidalgo", who tried to enact revenge for the death of the priest Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla, the founding father of Mexico's independence.

SCOTLAND

Benromach Single Malt Scotch Whisky, Speyside

Our distillery has been making Benromach since 1898 using the same spring water rising in nearby Romach Hills. We handcraft our single malt and make it slowly, the time-honoured way. It's why our 10 Year Old is brimming with gorgeous classic pre-1960s Speyside character and every drop is fine enough to be savoured as a single malt. Using the finest natural ingredients our 3 distillers orchestrate every second of the distillation process; there are no short cuts to perfection.

Isle of Skye Blended Scotch Whisky, Isle of Skye

Few blends offer any age statement. This is because it defines the age of the youngest whisky in the blend, the majority of malts in Isle of Skye are much older. Origins in one of the Scottish Islands: Skye, home of the Clan Macleod.

An exceptionally smooth Scotch whisky containing a high proportion of carefully selected Island and Speyside Malts.

Kilchoman Distillery, Islay

Kilchoman is the first distillery to be established on Islay in over 124 years. Built in 2005, the first run of new spirit coming off the stills later that year. Kilchoman is one of the smallest distilleries in Scotland and one of only six distilleries to conduct traditional floor maltings, but the key is that the barley is grown on the farm instead of purchased from around the country. Anthony Wills, the founder and managing director ran his own independent single cask bottling company for 8 years prior.

Muirhead's Scotch Whisky, Edinburgh

Muirhead's was first produced by Charles Muirhead and Sons, a whisky and wine merchant based in Edinburgh. Charles Muirhead and sons was founded in 1824, and had its offices at 186 Commercial Street close to the port of Leith in Edinburgh. Initially a wine merchant, the company soon branched out to become blenders and exporters of Scotch whisky under their flagship brand Muirhead's Blue Seal.

SPAINMaster's Selection Gin, Seville

First a double pot-stilled grain alcohol is re-distilled with Juniper, preselected from the family's own property in the Spanish Pyrenees near Teruel; Coriander from Andalusia, Spain and Cardamom sourced Guatemala. Next, there are three separate macerations of sweet oranges from Valencia, bitter oranges and lemons from Seville. All citrus fruits are hand peeled and are macerated individually for a year before being blended and then redistilled.

The Bitter Truth Bitters, Germany

It all started during a stay in London during the Bar Show June 2006. At that show, Munich bartenders Stephan Berg and Alexander Hauck gave birth to the idea of producing and distributing cocktail bitters, as they were hard to find in Germany. Both of them had already gained a considerable amount of experience in producing handmade cocktail bitters for the bars they were working at and in August of 2006 their first bitters were produced for sale.
