Infuse Spirits Craft Vodka, Santa Monica

This story all began in a garage. Back in 2012, the young, curious, and creative founder Seth Benhaim had made up his mind. He had decided the world was in desperate need of a new breed of vodka - one that offered an authentic process and flavor to match. One year and a few hundred samples later, Seth launched Infuse Spirits. Just three months after launching, Seth, now 25 years old, was the youngest brand owner to ever win Best-in-Show and Double-Gold at the San Francisco World Spirits Competition. Natural, real fruit and spices, introducing the world's first single bottle infusions.

MICHIGAN

New Holland Artisan Spirits, Holland

New Holland Brewing co-founder, Brett VanderKamp, discovered world-class rum on a surfing trip to Puerto Rico. He decided he wanted to create spirits that live up to his artful way of life and to share them with the world. The best ingredients, coupled with thoughtful fermentation and a prohibition-era pot still, result in creative and unique spirits.

UTAH

Beehive Distilling, Salt Lake City

Gin is a complicated spirit. A slew of recipes and taste tests. It was hard to settle but we think we've found the perfect blend. Small batches on a small still. Botanicals measured and macerated by hand, distilled, bottled and labeled in our Salt Lake City distillery.

Kid Curry Spirits, Salt Lake City

Named after the notorious Harvey "Kid Curry" Logan, Butch Cassidy's second in command – who was considered the wildest of the Wild Bunch – Kid Curry Vodka features the Kid's mug shot on its sepia-toned label. Wild in spirit and in origin – but deliciously smooth in taste - Kid Curry Vodka uses pure local Rocky Mountain Water to provide its earthy mineral base. Bottled at 80 proof and distilled from 100% corn, Kid Curry Vodka is one of only a few gluten-free premium vodkas and is filtered five times which makes for a crisp, clean finish.

Ogden's Own, Ogden

Touted as "Little Chicago" for years, even Al Capone commented that Ogden was too wild for his tastes. It is from this history that Ogden's Own Distillery has bottled a spirit with the diversity and uniqueness of Two-bit Street's past. With a higher proof and half the sugar, the flavors include a mellow blend of cassia, angostura, anise, cardemom, gentian, yarrow, wormwood, mate, guarana, ginseng, molasses, orange oil, lemon oil, spearmint, pure cane sugar, agave and plum.

IMPORTED DISTILLED SPIRITS

CHILE

Control C Pisco, Limari Valley

Born in 1931 Control C is a product elaborated mainly from the finest grapes: Pedro Jimenez and Moscatel. These grapes come from the Limari Valley in Chile, a land inhabited by the Diaguita Culture, well known for their worship to the sun. Control C is the only pisco which is distilled three times in copper alembics, creating a pure quality product.

United Kingdom

Penderyn Distillery, South Wales

Penderyn Single Malt Whisky was launched on 1 March 2004, a date which signalled the return of whisky distillation to Wales after an absence of more than 100 years. The distillery was officially opened by HRH, Prince Charles. Penderyn is made at the Penderyn Distillery which is located on the southern reaches of the Brecon Beacons. The whisky is distilled in a specially-commissioned unique whisky still producing a flavourful spirit at 92% abv which is married with fresh spring water drawn from directly beneath the distillery. The spirit is then matured in ex-bourbon barrels and finished in rare Madeira barriques.

FRANCE

Aveze Gentiane Liqueur, Auvergne

Developed in 1929 by Emile Refouvelet, AVÈZE is a classic French aperitif with the distinction of being the only French gentian liqueur flavored exclusively using wild yellow gentian collected from the historic national park of Volcans d'Auvergne encompassing three volcanic mountains, which are illustrated on the AVÈZE front label. This complex aperitif offers distinctive, bittersweet herbal notes accented by hints of anise, orange peel, mint and earth.

Monteru Rare French Brandy, Cognac

The origins of Monteru date back to the late 1700's when the descendant of the Count of Monteru moved to the Cognac region and married his daughter to the son of a cognac merchant. MAISON MONTERU is the first French producer of single grape brandies distilling the most sought-after single varietals. This innovative and modern spirit range combines both authenticity and tradition while creating a new product category of brown spirits somewhere between the most traditional brandies and single malt whiskies.

West Cork Distillers, West Cork

WCD was founded in 2003 by three close friends Denis McCarthy, Ger McCarthy & John O'Connell in Union Hall, Ireland. Ger & Denis had been deep sea trawler men whilst John was a research & development scientist. WCD is the most southerly located distillery on the Atlantic Archipelago in Skibbereen, and one of the last independent distilleries in Ireland.

WCD triple distills all its Irish whiskey, malts its own barley, and only uses Irish grown grain in the production of its whiskey.

ITALY

Amaro dell'Etna, Sicily

Amaro dell' Etna has its roots on the slopes of Mount Etna, where more than 26 herbs and aromatic plants grow to craft this spectacular digestif. The 100% natural, hundred-year-old special recipe embodies the volcanic nature of Sicilian soil. The meticulously-selected herbs and plants are carefully washed, and the aromas skillfully extracted before being mixed with water-sugar based syrup. The liquid is then left to mature for more than two months to draw out the full potential and bold spiced flavor. It is distinguished by its herbal notes, hints of licorice with a fragrant essence of blood oranges.

Marolo Grappa, Alba

Paolo Marolo and his brother begin making grappa in 1977. They opened Saint Therese distillery with two small discontinuous "bain marie" alembic stills, one for red wine pomace and one for white wine pomace. He has become an innovator in the world of grappa, taking a rustic old-world style and experimenting with single noble grape varietals instead of mixed pomace. His slow, hands-on production methods create these artisanal grappas in small quantities to be aged in native Acacia and oak barrels for long and careful aging.

Ohishi Whisky, Mizukami

Ohishi is a fifth generation family owned distillery founded in 1872 along the beautifully mountainous countryside in Southwest Japan. Ohishi Whisky is distilled entirely from rice and aged in either Brandy or Sherry Casks. In order to ensure the quality of the spirit, the Master Distiller utilizes 30% estate grown grain for distillation in pot stills.

MEXICO

Banhez Mezcal Artesanal, Oaxaca

In the tiny village of San Miguel Ejutla in the central valley, a co-operative comprised of 20 families is committed to sustainable fair trade mezcal production like it's been done by their ancestors for nearly two centuries. Underground wood-fired pits, donkey-pulled tahonas, fermentation in wooden tanks and small-batch distillation in copper alembics punctuate a process that has been and remains the life's work of these mezcaleros.

Grand Mayan Tequila, Jalisco

Grand Mayan's handcrafted Ultra Aged Tequila is a blend of three, four and five year old tequilas produced with the purest, central-highland Blue Agave with the highest standards of production. Aged in American & French oak casks, this rich, small-batch Extra Anejo takes 10 years to produce from agave plant to hand-painted ceramic decanter. Individually numbered and painted by local Mexican artists in Mexico City, each bottle is a piece of art, but it's what's inside that is truly a masterpiece.

Peloton de la Muerte Mezcal, Oaxaca

A "semi-dry" mezcal with a touch of smoke on the finish that is ideal to sip or in a cocktail. The label of Peloton de la Muerte, which means Brigade of Death, was the flag used by the insurgents during the Mexican Revolution who called themselves "the squadron of death for the suffering Hidalgo", who tried to enact revenge for the death of the priest Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla, the founding father of Mexico's independence.

SCOTLAND

Isle of Skye Blended Scotch Whisky, Isle of Skye

Few blends offer any age statement. This is because it defines the age of the youngest whisky in the blend, the majority of malts in Isle of Skye are much older. Origins in one of the Scottish Islands: Skye, home of the Clan Macleod.

An exceptionally smooth Scotch whisky containing a high proportion of carefully selected Island and Speyside Malts.

Kilchoman Distillery, Islay

Kilchoman is the first distillery to be established on Islay in over 124 years. Built in 2005, the first run of new spirit coming off the stills later that year. Kilchoman is one of the smallest distilleries in Scotland and one of only six distilleries to conduct traditional floor maltings, but the key is that the barley is grown on the farm instead of purchased from around the country. Anthony Wills, the founder and managing director ran his own independent single cask bottling company for 8 years prior.
