Lenten Fast

Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics.

Ages 18-60 are obligated to fast, permitted to eat one full meal and two optional smaller meals that must not equal the larger. From the age of 14, abstinence from meat on Fridays is binding.

Other acts of charity and almsgiving are also encouraged as we prepare our hearts for the celebration of the resurrection. Where fasting is not possible for medical reasons other acts of penance may be substituted.
