Free Herbal Consultations

Second Tuesdays of the month, 5-8 pm

at The Women's Initiative

1101 East High Street, Charlottesville

Free consultations include relaxing and nourishing herbal remedies to support issues concerning digestion, stress, insomnia, pain and general health. Simple teas and syrups will be offered as well as practical dietary recommendations. We will always have an urn of herbal tea to introduce community members to the flavor of various nourishing teas.

Learn more and schedule your appointment by contacting The Women's Initiative at (434) 872-0047 or info@thewomensinitiative.org

Botanica Mobile Clinic is a nonprofit clinic that offers herbal consultations to underserved populations in Charlottesville and surrounding counties. All consultations as well as herbal teas and supplements will be offered free of cost. Donations are appreciated.
