

Professional learning opportunity!

Xicanx Institute for Teaching and Organizing

WINTER INSTITUTE WASHINGTON III

COST: $550. Includes 3-day institute materials, clock-hours, lodging and meals.

Featured in the documentary film, "Precious Knowledge"

Learn about the recent Ethnic Studies victory in the August 2017 decision which concluded that state officials in Arizona had acted out of racial animus in shutting down a Mexican-American studies program in Tucson's public schools.

Culturally Responsive

Strengthen your professional awareness and practice. XITO's research-based best practices in socially and historically empowering pedagogical approaches are highly effective with traditionally marginalized and underserved student populations.

Academic Identity

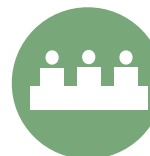

XITO will help your staff develop academically rigorous Common Core and state aligned curriculum units that are culturally, socially, and historically responsive in the areas of English/Language Arts and History/Social Studies.

Belonging

Build a support system for belonging. Through research and investigation of ethnic studies XITO encourages students to increase self-awareness and explore their place in history.

Student Voice

Engage students as stakeholders. Help students respond to recent protests and events led by students of color across the nation and support student organizations through social justice pedagogy.

Graduate credits in education are available through Prescott College.
