

Internship Overview

Bill Gates, Warren Buffet, and Steve Jobs have all said it is harder to give money away effectively than it is to make money. So how can philanthropists turn giving goals into giving strategies that permanently transform lives? They turn to Excellence in Giving. If you want to learn how we do it, we have the right internship for you.

Internship Details

What? Interns work closely with the Client Services, Research, and Relationship Management teams to support Excellence in Giving in a variety of ways. This projects-based position allows interns to gain experience in the different departments of our company and make an impact in our office, as well as with clients and nonprofits. Interns will build familiarity with domestic and internationally operating nonprofit, foundations, and philanthropic communities. This is an excellent opportunity for someone interested in learning about philanthropic and nonprofit industries.

Who? Juniors, seniors, or graduates with interest in performance-based evaluations and the philanthropic sector. Leadership, business, and/or research experience recommended.

Where? Interns work out of Excellence in Giving's office in downtown Colorado Springs. Change the world during the week, and play in the Rockies on the weekend!

When? Spring, summer, and fall educational (unpaid) internships last 6-12 weeks based on the intern's availability and school requirements. Full-time, paid internships last 4-12 months.

Apply! Go to ExcellenceinGiving.com to learn more about us. If you believe in what we do and think you have what it takes, download and complete an application and submit it at least 6 weeks prior to your preferred start date and submit to jbocker@excellenceingiving.com ..

Benefits

Learn the art and science of intelligent philanthropy

Excellence in Giving takes an investment approach to analyzing nonprofit organizations that employs the same principles from for-profit business due diligence and Wall Street investing. Interns will have an opportunity to learn and apply Excellence in Giving's research and evaluation processes for identifying best practices and the best organizations in diverse social sectors and locations.

Develop your analytical and communication skills

Interns will have an opportunity to apply their skills in research, evaluation, writing, and presentations in an exciting, challenging, high-impact environment.

Understand what role philanthropy plays in today's economy and people's well-being

Interns will be exposed to the challenges and opportunities high-capacity donors face as they give significant amounts with the intent of making a lasting difference. Exposure to these issues and the people behind them will provide valuable background for any career in the nonprofit, government, or private sector.

Interact with Excellence in Giving's national and global network

You will interact with key leaders in nonprofit management from across the country who lead organizations that work around the world. You will learn about a whole new set of world-shaping individuals and initiatives.