

Love and Respect

Scripture: First Peter 3:1-12

Outline of First Peter

1. Greetings (1:1-2)
2. Praise to God for salvation (1:3-12)
3. Holy living (1:13-2:12)
4. Conduct of the believer (2:13-4:11)
5. Ministry through suffering (4:12-5:11)
6. Conclusion (5:12-14)

Wives 3:1-6

1. Why are wives to be submissive (3:1)?
2. What does the word submissive mean (3:1)?
3. What is the power of chaste conduct accompanied by fear (3:2)?
4. In this passage, what does the word fear mean (3:2)?
5. What is missing if the adornment is merely outward (3:3)?
6. What does he mean by the hidden person of the heart (3:4)?
7. What is precious in the sight of God (3:4)?
8. Give an example of wifely submission in the Old Testament, other than Sarah.
9. What makes one a daughter of Sarah (3:6)?

Husbands 3:7

10. What is the husband to give to his wife (3:7)?
11. Why are women deemed the weaker vessel (3:7)?
12. Of what are couples joint heirs (3:7)?
13. What hinders a husband's prayers (3:7)?

General guidance 3:8-12

14. How are we to be of one mind (3:8)?
15. How is our conduct to bring blessing to others (3:8)?
16. How are we to be of one mind (3:8)?
17. Why are we not to return evil for evil (3:9)?
18. How do we go about finding good days (3:10-12)?
19. God's face is against whom (3:12)?