

THE HEART OF THE HOME. TOWARDS A SOCIAL HISTORY OF DOMESTIC SPACE IN TWENTIETH-CENTURY EUROPE

International Workshop – Sapienza Università di Roma, 26-27 September 2013

Facoltà di Lettere e Filosofia, Dipartimento di Storia Culture Religioni, aula di Paleografia Paola Supino Martini (2nd floor)

Thursday 26 Sept	9:30	Bruno Bonomo (Sapienza Università di Roma), Introduction
	10:00	Francesca B. Filippi (Politecnico di Torino), Living room and the art of reception: etiquette, taste and furniture in early 20th century Italian home
	11:00	Coffee break
	11:30	Krista Cowman (University of Lincoln), A wasted institution? The debate over the working-class parlour in inter-war Britain
	12:30	Laura Falender (Universitetet i Oslo), Function or formality; community or privacy? The social and structural modernization of the living room in twentieth-century Oslo
	15:30	Annie Fourcaut (Université Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne), Que faire de la salle de séjour ? Ou le désarroi des premiers habitants des grands ensembles (France 1950-1970)
	16:30	Bruno Bonomo (Sapienza Università di Roma), The 'boom' at home. Modernity and tradition in the Italian living rooms of the 'great transformation' (c. 1950-1970)
	17:30	Coffee break - wine reception
	18:00	Filippo De Pieri (Politecnico di Torino), Presentation of the research project Storie di case - Stories of houses
Friday 27 Sept	9:30	Susan E. Reid (University of Sheffield), Living in Style: Making Oneself at Home in Soviet Sixties Apartments
	10:30	Katrin Schreiter (King's College London), Entertaining, working, storing, sleeping: The reception of functionalist aesthetic discourse in postwar Germany's living rooms
	11:30	Coffee Break
	12:00	Simon Gunn (University of Leicester), Closing remarks Final discussion