Be a Friend

The Friends take pleasure in what our library offers. As Friends of the Library we volunteer, plan, organize and host functions, events and special projects for the enhancement of our beloved public library.

Membership in the Friends furnishes the means to:

- Provide additional educational and cultural programs for adults and children.
- Purchase materials not available to the Library through its normal budgeting process.

Members receive:

- Friends' emails and news
- Early notice of registration for certain events.
- Discounts to selected programs.
- Opportunities to share their talents.

Being a Friend of the Library gives you the opportunity to meet with fellow Friends of the Library in a relaxed atmosphere at our monthly meetings.

Friends meetings are held at the Library on the third Thursday of every month at 7:30 p.m. Meetings are open to the public and are a great way to learn about what we do. Please join us!
