Artists In Partnership, Inc. and the LBPL Present:
The 9th Annual Barrier Beach

June 29 - July 2

The Blues Community recently lost 2 legendary Blues Musicians: Long Beach Local, Michael Barnett and Blues Hall of Famer, Michael Packer. It is our intention to focus on their memory by dedicating this year's event to them.

Thursday, June 29

7:00 - 9:00 p.m.: BIG FISH BLUES movie (92 min)

From the 60's to through the 90's Long Island (aka the Big Fish) was home to a fantastic blues scene. The Big Fish Blues documentary reveals a genre and a host of incredible performances by many Long Island blues greats - performances that have never before been experienced by many Blues lovers. Q&A with director/producer Leslye Abbey immediately following screening, then join us at 9:00 at LOLA's - 180 West Park Avenue for a musical Tribute to Michael Barnett with the Mike Barnett Tribute Band and Jam featuring local musicians and friends who knew and loved him.

Friday Evening, June 30 at the Library

7:00 p.m.: Eclectic Blues Trio with Steve Adelson, Blues Guitarist Kerry Kearney and Drummer, Eileen Murphy.

8:00 p.m.: The "King" Solomon Hicks Quartet.

Saturday Afternoon, July 1 - Outdoors

Kennedy Plaza with "Arts in the Plaza" (in front of City Hall)

In the event of rain, the programs will take place at the Long Beach Public Library.

12:00 a.m.: Kim and Peter Kuperschmid - Acoustic Blues

1:30 p.m.: The Random Blues Band featuring Benoir, Natalie Dangerfield, and many Special Guests.

Saturday Evening, July 1 at the Library

7:30 p.m.: The evening will be dedicated to the memory of the late Michael Packer and will feature members of his Band, friends and special guests including Howie Haber, Lou Carrollo, Sweet Suzi, John Puglisi and others TBA. Join us as we celebrate his life, his music, and his Blues Hall of Fame Legacy. Old School Blues ... just the way you like them!

For more information please visit: www.aip-arts.org. Program subject to change. All events are FREE. Seating is limited to 175 in the Library.

The Golden Tone Orchestra Big Band

Sunday, June 11 at 2:00 p.m.

On June 11th, the Long Beach Library will be transformed into a concert hall from the Big Band Era. Your trip to that bygone era will be led by Vincent "Bobby" Ferrari, the band leader who is 96 years young and played with many bands at that time along with the famous Vincent Lopez. Bobby plays the flute, clarinet, saxophone and will thrill you with his vocal renditions. Bobby is assisted by the 21 members of The Golden Tone Orchestra. Many of the members are in their eighties. The program is filled with songs from the past along with modern tunes. Prepare yourself for an afternoon of nostalgia. Sit back, close your eyes if you wish and enjoy the trip.

Learn About Jerry Seinfeld with Ira Epstein

Tuesday, June 13 at 2:00 p.m.

Jerry Seinfeld is one of the most successful and influential stand up comedians of his generation and is noted for having a unique perspective on everything. His ability to observe things that we just take for granted is his source of superior comedy and his material holds a truly timeless quality. This program will trace his development and analyze his comedic style with numerous audio visual clips that will demonstrate that Seinfeld remains a "master of his domain."

Dame Helen Mirren with Marilyn Carminio

Wednesday, June 14 at 2:00 p.m.

Dame Helen Mirren, a megastar of extraordinary range and intelligence, was once told by a fortune teller that she would achieve her greatest success after the age of 40. Beginning her career in the Royal Shakespeare Company at 18, she would go on to make over 125 appearances in movies and television. One of 15 actresses to have won the "Triple Crown of Acting" (Oscar, Emmy & Tony), Helen Mirren has played a queen six times in her career. According to Prince William, her portrayal of Queen Elizabeth II is "so convincing I should probably call her Granny." This lecture/video presentation will highlight Helen's career and her candid personal revelations about coming of age in the turbulent 1960's, living in the limelight, her sensual screen persona, love, men, marriage, children and navigating life's journey. Warm, witty, smart, sassy, stylish, and a symbol of aging gracefully, Dame Helen Mirren is a force of nature.
