Items Discussed:

2013 Budget – LCC will have $15., more for a total of $2,206., in the 2013 budget then 2012 of which we still have $430., remaining. We need new signs for the fishing derby something that would read, “pond closed for kids fishing derby will reopen” we would need 12 signs.

Existing conserved lands, where could we add conserved land – ideally to connect to Moore's Falls.

Moore's Falls – it was mowed in August, LCC paid for one day of mowing. Roger St. Laurent will go up after a 'hard' frost, the raspberry briars need trimming.

Lower Merrimack River Local Advisory Committee (LMRLAC) there was a meeting Thursday, September 27th at 7PM at Nashua Public Library with the leaders of the Renaissance project of Nashua, Michael Croteau to update LCC at November meeting.

Tom Levesque Motions to accept September Minutes, Richard Husband 2nds the Motion, Motion carries 5-0-0.

New Business:

Darrah Pond Lowly water Milfoil report was done by Aquatic Control Technology, Inc., in 2006, to have it updated the cost would be $600. Joan McKibben will get on the agenda for the Board of Selectman (BOS) and Roger St. Laurent will attend as well, to see what approach if any the BOS would like LCC to take and what about involvement from the Rec Commission.

NHACC annual meeting Saturday, November 3, 2012 in Concord NH, Joan McKibben and Sharon Jones to attend.

Weather Station – Joan McKibben contacted Brandon Kernan NHDES hydrogeologist regarding having official precipitation documented in Litchfield not Nashua, Brandon recommends Mrs. McKibben contact Mary Stampone State Climatologist, Joan McKibben will reach out to Ms. Stampone.

LCC to send a thank you note to NH DOT Division for cutting back the brush on 3A.

8:17PM Tom Levesque Motions to adjourn, Roger St. Laurent 2nds, Motion carries 5-0-0.
