

Donor recognition is a crucial component of fundraising. Through proper recognition, the Gloversville Public Library can acknowledge financial support in a consistent and meaningful way. The Library encourages cash gifts, gifts of securities and securities transfers, matching gifts, memorials and tributes, bequests, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts.

Visible and tangible recognition of gifts allows the Gloversville Public Library to recognize its most generous donors and provides examples of generosity for others to emulate. The Library will, however, respect and abide by a donor's wish to remain anonymous.

The Library Director and her designees are responsible for all donor recognition and for the consistent implementation of these policies.

Donor Recognition Objectives

The donor recognition policy is intended to:

- Provide appropriate, timely and donor-centered recognition of all charitable donations
- Cultivate future support among the current donor base
- Stimulate interest and support amount potential donors

General Recognition Practices

Recognition policies apply to gifts received from individuals, corporations, foundations, and/or selected government entities recognized as a single donor. Gifts from a group of family members will be recognized as a single donor for the combined total of gifts from the individual family members.

Only gifts accepted in accordance with Gloversville Public Library's guidelines (see appendix A: Acceptance Guidelines) will qualify for recognition.

Due to the unique nature of donor relationships, exceptions to the stated recognition policy may be appropriate and may be approved by the Library Board.

Donor Recognition Boards

Donor recognition boards or other recognition vehicles will be created for Historic Gifts, Campaign Gifts, Lifetime Gifts, and general donations and will be placed in a location that will maximize impact visibility. Individual, corporate, foundation, governments and other benefactors will be recognized on the donor recognition boards according to the level of their respective support.

Appendix A: Guidelines

These guidelines apply to monetary gifts. For more information about donation of books and other items see the Donations Policy. Monetary gifts maybe made in the forms of cash, checks and securities payable and/or transferable to the Gloversville Library Foundation, Inc.

They are often in memory or in honor of a loved one who valued the Library. Donors who give over $5,000 be given permanent recognition. Donors who give under $5,000 are personally thanked with no recognition unless the donation is for books in honor or in memory of someone. Then a bookplate is added to the items purchased with the funds.
