

FILIPINO AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL BOOK FESTIVAL (FILBOOKFEST 2)

Likhâ ng Lahi. WRITING OUR WAY HOME: SHAPING TRADITION, HISTORY AND CULTURE

OCTOBER 18-20, 2013 • SAN FRANCISCO PUBLIC LIBRARY, MAIN BRANCH
100 LARKIN STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, CA 94102

Schedule

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 2013

Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

12:30-12:45

Nico's Sampaguita. Film directed by Aaron Woolfolk, with Esperanza Catubig. This short tells the story of a dedicated jazz musician and what happens to his family after his sudden death.

12:55-1:50

Pinoy Jazz: The Story of Jazz in the Philippines. Documentary by Richie Quirino based on Pinoy Jazz Traditions, winner of the 2004 (Philippine) National Book Award in the music category and a second book entitled Mabubay Jazz: Jazz in Post War Philippines (2008). Screening will be followed by a Q&A with Richie Quirino who will also be a featured guest artist in the San Francisco Filipino American Jazz Festival at Yoshi's SF on October 20, 2013. Moderator: Carlos Zialcita.

2:20-3:20

Cine: Spanish Influences on Early Cinema in the Philippines. A documentary by Nick Deocampo, a noted film historian, director and author. Based on his award-winning book published in 2003.

3:25-4:25

Film: American Influences on Philippine Cinema. A documentary by Nick Deocampo based on his new book published in 2012. Q&A with Nick Deocampo to follow. Moderator: Mauro Feria Tumbocon, Jr.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2013

10:00 AM - 5:00 PM

•At the Latino/Hispanic Community Meeting Room: Book Vendors, Informational Tables and Author Book Signing throughout the day

Library Cafe in front of Koret Auditorium

10:45 AM -

Calligraphic Demonstration by Kristian Kabuay, artist and author inspired by baybayin, a pre-Hispanic writing system.

Kulintronica, music blending kulintang (traditional gong instruments from the Southern Philippines) and contemporary electronic dance music by Ron Quesada. Giovanni Ortega and Alleluia Panis accompany with dance movements.

Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

11:00-11:15

Official Welcome with representatives from the SF Mayor's Office, Philippine Consulate General of San Francisco, Bookfest Committee Representative, Luis Herrera/City Librarian, Karen Strauss-Chief of the Main Library, Mitchell Yangson: Librarian-The Filipino American Center

11:15-12:15

Guest Authors Panel #1: Writing Our Way Home: Shaping Tradition, History and Culture.

M.Evelina Galang, Marivi Soliven, Alejandro Murguía (current Poet Laureate of SF), Moderator: Ben Pimentel. Authors discuss topics relating to the festival's theme.

Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

12:30-1:30

Kodakan Panel: Artists discuss Kodakan, a media project exploring changing expressions of the Filipino cultural identity over time through the juxtaposition of vintage images of the community with a series of new photographs and videos. Presented by Kularts.

Fisher Children's Center , 2nd Floor

12:30- 1:30

Storytelling Time: Guest authors read children's books by Filipino American authors. Leslie V. Ryan, Barbara-Ann Gamboa Lewis, Marconi Calindas and Adam Cafege

Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

1:45-2:45

Philippine Endangered Species Panel. A presentation by Jeepney Projects Worldwide with David Tomb about their inspiring trip to Mindanao to see the Great Philippine Eagle, its fragile future, and the incredibly rich bird life of the Philippines.

Latino/Hispanic Community Meeting Room

1:45-2:45

Hot Off The Press: Multiple authors read excerpts from their new publications. Jon Pineda, Lysley Tenorio, Luisa Igloria, Angela Narciso Torres, Evelyn Ibatan Rodriguez, Elenita Strobel, Dawn Mabalon, Ben Pimentel
Moderator: Cecilia Manguerra Brainard

Stong Conference Room, 1st Floor

1:45-2:45

DIY Audience Building for Writers and Artists. Presentation by Anthem Salgado.
Engage in thought-provoking dialogue, work through live exercises, and learn key principles and tools.

Paley Conference Room, 3rd Floor

1:45-2:45

Writing Workshops: Kundiman and VONA. Informational panel about Kundiman, a New York-based organization offering annual writing workshops for Asian American poets and VONA (Voices of Our Nations Arts Foundation), dedicated to the nurturing of writers-of-color through their writing workshops in the East and West Coasts. Elmaz Abinader (Director of VONA) and Kundiman fellows Jason Bayani and Mg Roberts

Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

3:00-4:00

Guest Authors Panel #2: Writing Our Way Home: Shaping Tradition, History and Culture.
Luisa Igloria, Jon Pineda, Lysley Tenorio with Rashaan Meneses as moderator.
Authors discuss topics related to the festival's theme.

4:15-5:15

Carlos Bulosan Panel: Guest presenters discuss Bulosan's life and work.
Oscar Peñaranda (moderator) with Dawn Mabalon, Allyson Tintiangco-Cubales, Lou Syquia, Sheila Bare

6:00

Library closes

Irma's Pampanga Restaurant: 2901 16th Street, SF

6:00-7:00 PM

PAWA at the Annual San Francisco Litcrawl.
Barbara Jane Reyes, Yael Villafranca, Paul Ocampo, Angela Narcisco Torres, Amy Bell

Bindlestiff Studio: 185 6th St, SF

7:30 PM

Sneak Preview of a Staged Reading of the English Translation of Rody Vera's Adaptation of The Guerrillas of Powell Street, a book by Ben Pimentel.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2013

12:00–4:00 PM

•At the Latino/Hispanic Community Meeting Room: Book Vendors, Informational Tables and Author Book Signing throughout the day

Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

12:30–1:30

Culinary Chefs: Claude Tayag. Philippine artist, chef, food and travel columnist Claude Tayag discuss Filipino cuisine with Rene Astudillo, Marvin Gapultos and P.J. Quesada (moderator).

Latino/Hispanic Community Meeting Room

12:30–1:30

Hot Off The Press: Multiple authors read excerpts from their new publications. M. Evelina Galang, Giovanni Ortega, Nieves Catahan Villamin, Marianne Villanueva, Kristian Kabuay Joaquin Jay Gonzalez & Angelo Michael F. Merino. Moderator: Cecilia Manguerra Brainard

Stong Conference Room, 1st Floor

12:30–1:30

Born in Frisco. Stories of the houseless folks, gentrified folk, and residents of SF. A book project of the Al Robles Living Library Project of POOR Magazine. This book honors their voices, as well as the voices of the indigenous Ohlone people of SF. Includes original artwork by Filipino artists as well.

Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

1:50–2:50

Jeff Tagami In Memoriam Panel: Guest panelists pay tribute through readings and discussions of J. Tagami's life and work. Tony Robles (moderator) with Shirley Ancheta, Lou Syquia, Virginia Cerenio, Gary Soto.

Latino/Hispanic Community Meeting Room

1:50–2:50

The publisher and your story: Meritage Press. Authors from Meritage Press discuss their experiences in publishing and in navigating the different phases/stages of their literary careers as women. Jean Vengua, Michelle Bautista, Aileen Ibardaloza, Gayle Rosamanta, Karen Llagas (moderator).

Stong Conference Room, 1st Floor

1:50–2:50

PEP Writers & Poets. Invited PEP students read their work. Moderator: Melissa Sipin. [Original library listing: Teen poets with Melissa Sipin]

Paley Conference Room, 3rd Floor

2:00–3:00

The Road to Publishing. A discussion of traditional publishing and self-publishing with Marivi Blanco and Edwin Lozada.

Koret Auditorium, Lower Level

3:10–4:10

Balagtasan. Philippine Poetic Joust featuring Vim Nadera, Mike Coroza from the Philippines. Moderator: Karen Llagas

4:15

Official Closing Remarks

5:00

Library closes

Yoshi's of San Francisco, 1330 Fillmore, San Francisco, CA 94115

6:30 —

Sixth Annual San Francisco Filipino American Jazz Festival

For more details: <http://sfpinoyjazzfest.com>

