What is a CHAMPION?

A Champion helps students successfully complete the Jobs for Life course by encouraging and caring for them.

What Skills and Experience Does a CHAMPION Need?

- It will be helpful if you've held at least one job.
- Be familiar with, or willing to learn how to email, text, and use Facebook for communication depending on your student's preferences.
- Be willing to help students locate resources when you can't help.

CHAMPION?

What is Jobs for Life?

Jobs for Life (JfL) is a national non-profit organization whose purpose is to elevate the power of work to transform lives and communities for generations to come. The Bible-based JfL curriculum equips people to be all that God designed them to be; enjoying work and the satisfaction of using their skills to benefit their employer while providing for themselves and their loved ones.

Time

it takes to be a CHAMPION

4-5 hours per week to attend classes and meet your student outside class.

The course is 18 sessions, two days a week, over nine weeks at Woodlands Church in Plover.

Responsibilities of a CHAMPION

- Attend as many classes as possible, no more than three absences.
- Meet with your student once a week outside of classes.
- Assist your student with homework, resume creation, and other assignments, but don't complete the work for them.
- Submit regular status updates on your student and provide feedback on the program.

*Help people embody
God's design for our work:*

For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

-- Ephesians 2:10

For I know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

-- Jeremiah 29:11

"Jobs For Life gives confidence and hope. It busts shackles of failure, shame, and regret that keep one bound. It transforms disabilities to abilities, changes what used to be, and opens doors to possibilities!"

Misconceptions

about being a CHAMPION

- A CHAMPION must have experience in human resources or other job-related field.
While this type of experience may be helpful, it's not required.
- A CHAMPION must be perfect.
Successful CHAMPIONS are committed and dependable, respect and challenge students, hold them accountable, and are willing to make and admit mistakes.
- A CHAMPION must have all the answers.
The CHAMPION serves as a resource finder, helping students find their own answers.
