with Compassion International

What: A small group of Woodlanders will head down to Bolivia to visit a Child Development Center.

When: March 23- April 1, 2017

Where: Cochabamba, Bolivia

Why: The team will get to love and minister to the adults and kids involved with this project. We will get to learn about and experience firsthand the ministry of Compassion.

How: If you are interested in this trip, please fill out the application (available at the Welcome Center or visit our website) and return it to the church office by October 21. You will be notified of your status on this team by Friday, November 4.

The estimated cost of the trip is $3000-$3500.

Highlights: This team will serve the children, mothers, and church through different ministry opportunities. A sponsor fun day will also take place for trip participants who sponsor a child in Bolivia! For this reason, team selection preference will be given to those who sponsor Bolivian children.
