Visit the Farmers' Market exhibit on the Museum's second floor for an up close peek into the world of bees. Special thanks to exhibit creator, Karen Ames!

Join Us Every Day for
Bee Projects in the Art Center

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES Every Saturday

AUGUST 3RD at 11am & 1pm

Make a mini paper mache beehive of your very own. Add a cute bee to make it complete. Classes limited to 10 participants.

AUGUST 10TH from 11am - 5pm

Heroes don't always wear capes... We're taking a break from bees this week to honor our military service members, a handful of whom are volunteering at the museum today. Come in and make a dog tag.

AUGUST 17TH at 11am & 1pm

Create a googly-eyed bee hand puppet to buzz around the museum. Classes limited to 10 participants.

AUGUST 24TH at 11 am & 1pm

Use the warmth of your hands to mold wax into a bright flower that would attract any bee. Classes limited to 10 participants.

AUGUST 31ST at 11 am & 1pm

An activity so popular we're bringing it back! End the summer with an icy bang as we make frozen yogurt sweetened with honey and then taste it.
