Representing the health insurance industry in Louisiana

The Louisiana Association of Health Plans (LAHP) has operated since 1992 as the trade association for the health insurance industry in Louisiana. Initially supported by a small group of Louisiana health plans, LAHP has grown to become one of the most effective and respected associations in the state, now boasting more than 90 member and partner organizations.

“Companies like ours have partnered with LAHP for many years because of the association’s commitment to working together for a healthier Louisiana.”

Recognizing the growth and challenges the health insurance industry will continue to face in the future, LAHP awards an annual scholarship to support the education of a graduate-level student in a Louisiana health care management program.

State and Federal Advocacy

Industry champion on legislative and regulatory issues

LAHP proactively serves association members through advance notification of new and proposed legislation and regulatory changes. Through the participation of its members, the association has helped the industry defeat innumerable bills that would have raised premiums for employers and consumers, and would have impaired the effectiveness of member organizations. Similarly, LAHP has successfully facilitated the passage of many legislative initiatives that support affordability and fairness in health care.

LAHP is vigilant and continually strives to protect and advance the best interest of association members. The association represents its members in many tangible and intangible ways and is respected for leading the industry with intelligence, skill, and professionalism.

"The Louisiana Association of Health Plans provides strong representation at the Capitol for the health insurance industry. I have always appreciated the professional manner in which the association has worked with me and other legislators.

Chuck Kleckley, Speaker,
Louisiana House of Representatives
