ALLIED ARTISTS OF AMERICA 2015 PRESIDENT NEWSLETTER MESSAGE

Greetings to all Members, Associates and friends of Allied Artists of America (AAA). Spring has come at last and preparations for our Annual Juried Exhibition which opens to the public September 3, 2015 are in full swing. With the success of last year’s showing for the first time at the newly renovated gallery at the Salmagundi Club, we are anticipating another great exhibition with a selection of work from artists from throughout the United States. Entry deadline is July 18 so there’s plenty of time to submit. The Prospectus is available as a PDF file for easy printout at www.alliedartistsofamerica.org. Follow all directions carefully, be absolutely certain to send your submissions to the Director of your category and most importantly, please print legibly to be certain that all your information is processed correctly.

As President of Allied Artists of America and on behalf of the Board of Directors and Committee Members, I would like to express the most heartfelt thanks to all of the donors for their ongoing support and generous contributions. A non-profit organization, AAA functions 100% by volunteers who dedicate their time to keep this organization running at peak performance.

Sincerely,

 Thomas Valenti - President
