

bellarine memories®

for life's significant occasions

Funeral Plans

When thinking of funeral plans:

It can be helpful for our families and ourselves to take the time to consider our last wishes and to record the following information

Personal Details:

Surname Date of Birth

Given Names Known as

Place of Birth: Country P/C.....

Usual Residence: Street

Suburb..... Country P/C.....

Phone/Mobile

Email

Date of arrival in Australia (if applicable)

Usual Occupation

Pension Number (if applicable)

Marital Status: Married Widower Divorced Never Married Registered Relationship

Marriage Details:

Subsequent Marriages:

Place of Marriage Place

Date of Marriage Date

Name of Spouse Name
(prior to marriage)

.....

Children: (Names & Date of Birth or if deceased)

1. DOB:.....

2. DOB:.....

3. DOB:.....

4. DOB:.....

5. DOB:.....

6. DOB:.....

Parents:

Mother's Full Name

Mother's Maiden Surname

Mother's Usual Occupation

Father's Full Name

Father's Usual Occupation

A few words regarding funeral wishes:

Who should conduct the service or ceremony:

Venue:

Place of burial or cremation:

What things are important to you:

Special songs or hymns:

.....

.....

Readings/Reflections:

.....

Clubs or interests/passions:

.....

Use of photos or videos:

.....

.....

The coffin:

Flowers or items on the coffin:.....

Donations and/or flowers:

Should family go to the graveside/cremation:

Burial or cremation before or after the ceremony:

Newspaper notices/which papers:

.....

The wake or gathering:

.....

Special tributes from:

.....

The ashes:

A monument/memorial:

Other funeral wishes:

.....

.....

.....

Key contact Person:

Phone Numbers:

Email: