Where Learning Adventures Begin...

Hazel Class
Friday 15th December 2017

Dear Parents/Carers,

End of Term Activities

We are very excited to announce that Hazel class have achieved a full jar of fifty marbles for all their efforts as a class being ready to learn. As a reward for this we will be having a special class pyjama day next Wednesday. This is in addition to our class Christmas party which is taking place on Monday afternoon.

On Monday: Hazel class can come into school wearing their own choice of clothes ready for our party in the afternoon. If you have a donation of £1 towards party food, we would be very grateful.

On Wednesday: the children of Hazel class can come into school dressed warmly in their pyjamas or their own choice of clothes. Please remember if it is cold, to wear layers of warm clothing underneath! Name all clothing and please do not bring in any toys or cuddlies!

Kind regards
Miss Patrick
