

Welcome to the www.cultuslake.bc.ca website

Here's how to subscribe to Cultus Lake Park's RSS feed:

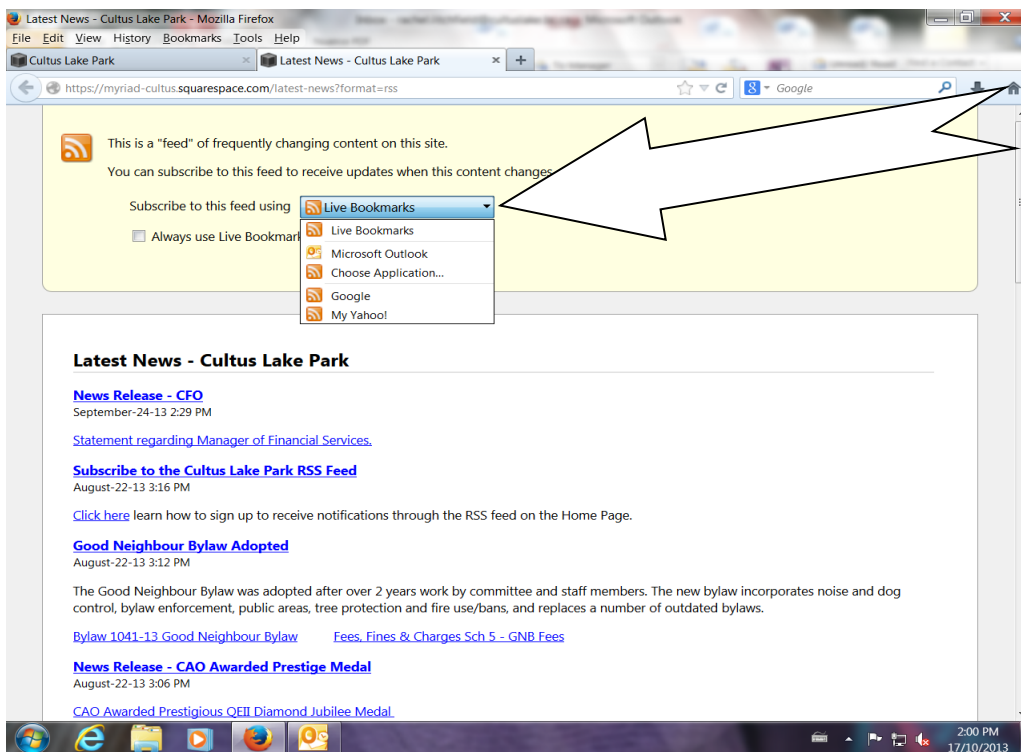

On the HOME PAGE:

Find the RSS text link below "Site Tools" and the "Search box".

Click on the underlined green word RSS (the subscription link)

When you click the RSS subscription link, you will be redirected to the page below, and you can then decide how you want your content delivered, click on the arrowhead for a drop down menu.

Once you select how you would like to receive your notifications, click on "SUBSCRIBE NOW" located just below the drop down menu as shown below.

You'll be directed to another page to confirm your subscription. (In the example below, Microsoft Outlook email was selected as the preferred method to receive feeds)

You will be prompted to confirm if you wish to have the RSS feed added to your media choice. It is safe to select "YES" to get "Latest News" updates that are posted to the website. Thank you!
