  - 1 yd - 1.5" pink wrinkled ribbon (EA17)
  - 1 ft - 1/8" green silk (SK16)
  - 1 yd - 1/4" cream silk (SK09)

- pale pink spray paint
- spray glue
- tacky glue
- scissors
- glue gun
- ruler
- thin black marker
- 8 pale pink sequins

INSTRUCTIONS

- step 1 – spray paint the wooden plaques.
- step 2 – choose background paper and cut out 2 - 6.75" x 4" ovals.
- step 3 – using the letter stickers contained in your paper pack, spell out "awake" and "asleep" onto a contrasting sheet of paper. place the letters as close as possible without overlapping. trim out paper rectangles 3/8" all the way around the words. carefully, outline each letter sticker with black marker.

step 4 – spray glue the word rectangles onto the center of each of your oval backgrounds. then, spray glue the oval backgrounds onto the front side of each of the wooden plaques.

step 5 – glue your green silk ribbon all the way around the outside of your word rectangles using tacky glue at each of the 4 corners. then glue a sequin onto each of the 4 corners of silk ribbon. repeat with remaining plaque. let dry.

step 6 – using your cream silk and a glue gun, make loops with your ribbon on the backside of one plaque as illustrated below. next, overlap the ends of your pink ribbon and secure with glue in the middle of the plaque so the ribbon is oriented to come out the top of the plaque.

step 7 – with ribbon securely in place, coat the back side of the plaque with extra strength glue and squeeze the 2 plaques together to form a secure bond. then, hang on your door!
