INSTRUCTIONS

step 1

open ball jar and remove flat circular lid. trace the lid using a pencil onto white card stock.

step 2

using the 3 sunflower cluster stamp, press onto ink pad and stamp once into the drawn circle. try to center image within circle. may need to repeat above steps if impression is not crisp.

step 4

with the brown ink, stamp the rough frame image onto the card stock 2 separate times. next, stamp "sunflower" within the top of one of the frames. then stamp the "all things grow..." followed by the single sunflower bloom. using the glue pen, place a glue dot in each corner of your frame. sprinkle fluff on top of dots using instructions from step 3.

step 5

trim both frames (one with words, one without) and set aside.

step 6

fill jar with soil and place seeds on top (or you can them keep inside of seed packet if you prefer). take the metal top, lay the paper sunflower art on top of it and insert into mason jar cap. screw cap onto mason jar to secure contents.

adhere a 5 inch strip of double stick tape in the middle of the 12" length of ribbon. wrap ribbon around center of mason jar and press into place. when you get to the front, wrap one end over the other and secure the center with tape.

to finish, attach the cut out frame containing the words onto the front with tape. next, take the blank frame and write a special note to the recipient and attach onto the back side of the jar.
