33RD ASCAC

MIDWEST REGIONAL CONFERENCE

ASCAC was established at the First Annual Ancient Egyptian Studies Conference in Los Angeles, California in February 1984. Founding Members: Dr. Jacob H. Carruthers, Dr. Maulana Karenga, Dr. Leonard Jeffries, Dr. Asa G. Hilliard III, Dr. John Henrik Clarke, Dr. Yosef ben Jochannan, Dr. Anderson Thompson, and Nzinga Ratibisha Heru.

The goal of ASCAC is to bring together scholars, thinkers, planners, artists, students, scientists, and technicians to promote and restore our ancient African heritage through research, education, creative productions, and spiritual development. ASCAC, through its annual regional and national conferences, publications, and international educational tours, promotes a Pan African discussion of world history, historical identity, purpose and direction.
