Useful Directions

By plane

Within a radius of barely 100 kilometres around San Sebastian there exist 3 airports with international flights.

San Sebastian airport is 20 minutes from the city centre. It has shuttle flights to the main Spanish cities, Madrid and Barcelona.

Not far away are the airports of Bilbao, connected to the whole of Europe, and Biarritz, served by French, international and low-cost airlines.

- San Sebastian Airport (EAS) – 20 km (Shuttle service San Sebastián airport – city centre)
- Bilbao Airport (BIO) – 105 km (Shuttle service Bilbao Airport – San Sebastian)
- Biarritz Airport (BIQ) – 40 km (Biarritz Airport connections to San Sebastian)

Getting San Sebastian by taxi could cost approximately 160 euros from Bilbao Airport, 105 euros from Biarritz Airport, and 45 euros from San Sebastian Airport.

By train

Situated right in the centre of the city, San Sebastian's train station, known as the Estación del Norte (Northern Station), is connected to a large number of Spanish cities, including Madrid and Barcelona, and also international destinations, such as Paris and Lisbon. There is also a high-speed train connection (TGV) between Paris and Hendaye.
