Driving Directions / General Travel Information to Eurotel Victoria,

Les Diablerets

Les Diablerets can best be reached by train. Attendees arriving at Geneva International Airport can take the train directly from the train station in the airport. There is a train leaving the airport every hour. Take the train that goes to Aigle, but buy your ticket to Les Diablerets.

SBB Ticket Shop: <https://www.sbb.ch/ticketshop/b2c/>

Airport layout: <http://www.gva.ch/de/desktopdefault.aspx/tabid-60/>

The train will pass through the following stations: Geneva - Nyon - Morges - Lausanne - Vevey – Montreux - Aigle. At Aigle, disembark and board the small mountain train to Le Sepey and Les Diablerets. The tracks are next to the platforms for the main SBB train service. The train will take you through a number of small towns with Les Diablerets being the final stop.

Note: If you are taking the train from Geneva to Les Diablerets, please be sure to look after your belongings. Keep your bags and laptops with you at all times. If you have to store them under the seats or in the overhead racks, make sure they are clearly visible.

The total traveling time from Geneva to Les Diablerets by train is about 2.5 hours. You can also reach Les Diablerets by train from Zurich Airport, but one has to change trains in Lausanne. The total traveling time to Les Diablerets from Zurich is 4.15 hours.

The train station in Les Diablerets is a 5-10 minute walk from the hotel. The hotel provides a shuttle for luggage and attendees whenever needed from 11:00 am - 9:00 pm. You do not need to call (the bus will automatically be at the station for each train arrival). Please note: the Eurotel check-in time is 2:00 pm, but your room may be ready before that.

If you walk from the station to the hotel, continue up the main street (as you stand with the train station on your right hand side). You will pass the Tourist information office on your left and a few sports shops and cafes. At the top of the street, turn right then cross the river. The Eurotel is on the left.

Attendees renting cars at the airport can get directly on the Geneva-Lausanne-Aigle motorway and reach Les Diablerets in about 1.5 hours (1 hour highway to Aigle and about 20 minutes on a mountain road up to Les Diablerets).
