

Draw a picture of what you think it looked like when the archaeologists discovered the dog burial.

Draw a picture of how you might sort the dog bones if you were a zooarchaeologist.

Draw what you think the dogs of Ashkelon looked like. Remember what their skull looked like!

Paula said the dogs were not pets, but lived in the cities of Ashkelon. What sorts of things do you think the dogs did during the day?

