Dear Chair Robins and council members:

I am encouraged that the Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council is taking proactive steps to protect vulnerable and poorly understood deep-sea coral ecosystems. Such protections would be in line with the objectives of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration’s Strategic Plan for Deep-Sea Coral and Sponge Ecosystems and with the council’s recent efforts to advance ecosystem-based fisheries management.

Specifically, I urge the council to designate all waters from the proposed 200-meter depth contour to the edge of the U.S. Exclusive Economic Zone and each of the defined canyons as off-limits to all destructive bottom fishing gears. This restriction should include mid-water trawl gear, which has been documented to contact the sea floor. Safeguarding waters from this "broad zone"—200 meters and seaward—and the canyons will provide the highest conservation benefit while allowing current fisheries access to the areas that they most rely upon. No new exemptions should be permitted beyond those detailed in Amendment 16, as the risk of opening up these sensitive areas to new fisheries or gear types would undermine the document’s objectives. Furthermore, I support the use of new technologies, such as vessel monitoring systems, to help ensure the plan’s effective implementation on the water.

I urge you to safeguard these ecological treasures now and for future generations by establishing a strong and enduring plan that would serve as an example for similar protections in New England and around the country and the world, where scientists are discovering extensive, beautiful, and previously unknown deep-sea coral gardens.

We are only beginning to learn about these biological communities and their importance to other components of ocean ecosystems, as well as their values to humans. Please pass and implement the strongest possible management measures in Amendment 16.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

(See list of signatories and their personal comments – if applicable – below)

They are economically and ecologically critical and I do hope this proposal is carried out.

Raymond	Ambrozaitis		Ormond Beach	FL	U.S.	I fully support the Mid-Atlantic of course however I am far from adverse to expanding. I see trawlers daily here in Central Florida and I make not of the change in the coloration of the water once they have done a day's work. There is definite dmage being done as this would indicate
Marina	Garland	2007 Twin Pond Rd	Bar Harbor	ME	U.S.	I grew up in a fishing community. I am for fishing. BUT, it has been so clear, for so long, that trawling that disturbs the sea floor cannot go on if we want future generations to be able to go fishing and make a living. This should be a no-brainer.

Evan	Edinger		Torbay		Canada	I study deep-sea corals, and their conservation in Canadian waters. Our 2007 report for WWF-Canada shows the importance of closing sensitive habitats to all bottom-tending fishing gears. My colleagues at Fisheries and Oceans Canada mention finding boulders in mid-water trawls, so I applaud your decision to include mid-water trawls among the list of bottom-tending fishing gears that would be excluded from these areas. We frequently look to our US colleagues for leadership on conservation issues. I urge you to provide this leadership by establishing this protection at continental shelf depths in submarine canyons of the US mid-Atlantic continental margin.

Joan	Kleypas		Boulder	CO	U.S.	I understand that it's not so compelling to take care of something you don't see everyday. Even with our own bodies, we tend to pay more attention to skin and hair than to our internal organs. Cold water coral ecosystems are like that. Few people know they're even there, yet they are vital systems that support the health of our oceans and fisheries. They contribute to the entire planet, but are often blindly eradicated by the activities of a very few. I hope you will do your best to protect these amazing ecosystems from the trawl.

Victor	Tiship		Putnam Valley	NY	U.S.	Protecting habitat is essential to rebuilding fisheries stocks for a viable and sustainable future, including jobs. We have seen how in some other areas setting aside large areas where all exploitation is outlawed produces greater catches outside the protected spawning areas. So many marine species have been decimated one after the other according to the whim or greed of the day. Many species have had their genetic makeup shifted to ever smaller individuals and group size. Shortsighted economic interests have the ears of our elected and appointed officials but the task is not to cater to greed or over-exploitation for short term gain, but to restore the viability of the species and their habitats that have been destroyed or brought to near extinction. We must use scientific data to repair what we have done to the marine environment and denizens. That means protecting vast areas in different geographic locations to rebuild the entire ecosystem as well as protect the often fragile habitats from destruction and greed. Please use science and sustainability and not economic exploitation as the template for reform and restoration of what once was.

GIB	CHASE	6 Kimball Ln	Northboro	MA	U.S.	The action needed and the emphasis should be on protection and maintenance of marine biodiversity and not the fisherman or fishing industry. Globally our oceans are suffering tremendous pressures and degradation from illegal fishing, destructive fishing practices and multiple pollution sources. The deep-sea corals and other unique marine communities hold untold medical and pharmacology wealth. Surely there are also many new unidentified invertebrates that could play a vital role in the marine ecosystem and to man. We need more protected areas established such as the canyon areas. During the 1970s Dr. Richard Cooper made several submersible dives into two or three of the Atlantic coast canyons to photograph this unique habitat. We know from these dives and pthers that these areas provide critical habitat for numerous sea creatures.

Mayellen	Henry	16651 SE 17th St	Bellevue	WA	U.S.	The world's population has now exploded to the point that we rely increasingly on the ocean for our food. We must protect the oceans in every way possible.
Luis-Alfredo	Cartagena Zaya	1010 Park Ave	New York	NY	U.S.	There are certain things in our fragile world that must preserved as is this is one of them.
marc	fried	PO BOX 1235	braithewaite	LA	U.S.	There are consequences to destroying ecosystems or species...
JoAnn	Witt	9237 Wyandotte St	Kansas City	MO	U.S.	There are many dead zones around the world. Please, stop this problem, and save this area.
Laura	Del Gaudio	3881 Sedgwick Ave	Bronx	NY	U.S.	There has already been such mass destruction. We can't afford anymore.
ERIKA	DAVIS	236 Rosalie Rd	Lopez Island	WA	U.S.	There is absolutely no reason or excuse to drag the ocean floor just to get some bottom fish. That's like clear cutting a forest to get the deer. Just because you can't see the damage from the surface doesn't make it not so. There are other ways to fish that are less destructive and bring in less bycatch. We all need to be more cognizant of the consequences of our actions, and pro active about limiting or curtailing those actions that cause more harm than good.
Scott	Cecile	3401 107th St SE	Everett	WA	U.S.	There is ample evidence of the destruction caused by bottom fishing gear.
JoAnn	Hediger		Saint Louis	MO	U.S.	There is so much about coral that is not understood, but so much is being lost. Trawling is one of the well understood ways, so it is at least one thing that could be controlled to help preserve this wonderful area.
ann	moore	5 Hialeah Ct	wilmington	DE	U.S.	These corals are absolutely amazing . . . they must be protected from pollution and especially from bottom fishing !
Pat	Bereczki	17003 SE 5th St	Vancouver	WA	U.S.	These ancient corals must be saved and protected!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Sharon	Drabsch		Perth		Australia	These ancient, very slow-growing and little-known biota and habitats need to be protected from being pure and total could-not-care-less greed. BAN ALL BENTHIC TRAWLING OF VIRGIN SEAFLOOR especially deep reef systems. These are too ancient, too slow-growing, too important, and too biodiverse but so little-known to simply be trashed so that a few people can make a quick and unsustainable buck.
Stefanie	Adam	1406 Sycamore Dr	Simi Valley	CA	U.S.	These animals are already under attack from climate change raising the seawater temperature to a point where they cannot survive as well as ocean acidification making their habitat toxic to live in and then allowing fishermen to just wreak havoc by literally running roughshod over them pulverizing them into powder. I mean what kind of ugly, stupid, destructive, ungrateful, kind of creature are we to selfishly destroy this ancient animals' home? Please protect coral, they provide home to fish and clean the water and are a critical part of our ecosystem even if we don't know it.
Holly	Hall	31621 Corte Rosario	Temecula	CA	U.S.	These are fragile and beautiful areas and must be saved.

Phyllis	Holliday	555 Taylor St. #406	San Francisco	CA	U.S.	These corals must be saved. Earth and ocean have been battered too much. It is time to try to rescue them.
Linda	Hayes	5631 Emerson Ave N	Brooklyn Center	MN	U.S.	These corals need to be protected. They are much more important to us than are the profits of any fishing concern.
Glen	Anderson	5015 15th Ave SE	Lacey	WA	U.S.	These corals need YOUR protection.
Rudy	Bonn		Miami Beach	FL	U.S.	These corals should be considered as essential habitats and need protection.
AManda	Grim		CB	NC	U.S.	These corrals should be protected to keep the sea life viable - for everyone's benefit, not just for the sea creatures who rely on it.
Mary	Doino	1506 W Alameda St	Santa Fe	NM	U.S.	These deep sea fishing trawlers kill everything in their path. The ocean can only take so much abuse. It has been exploited to the extreme. The least we can do is protect our waters from this destructive practice.

Carol Joan	Patterson	1421 County Road 323	Eureka Springs	AR	U.S.	These deep-sea coral ecosystems are priceless. To lose them would be a heart-breaking tragedy.
Matt	Johnson	3317 Garfield Ave	Minneapolis	MN	U.S.	These drag lines are horrible, shut this down completely.
graham	chivers		toronto		Canada	These eco systems take thousands of years to grow. These eco systems are fragile. Trawling is a harmful process leading to poor food production. Smart leadership will be needed to address climate, so, let's stop hurting what we have.
Mr. & Mrs. E.R. Adams		PO BOX 296	Dexter	MI	U.S.	These exquisitely beautiful and fragile corals, this unique ecosystem needs and deserves protection! Please protect these DeepSea Corals!!
Craig	Farkas	638 38th St	Des Moines	IA	U.S.	These fragile waters can not be replaced once their gone to our sensitive ecosystem. OWn up to the reputation in history of having been the official who stepped up !
Edith M.	Davis		Brooklyn	NY	U.S.	These habitats have only recently been recognized and serve as the latest example of the mysteries that still abound about life on Planet Earth. We must not destroy treasures that are still essentially unknown through blundering rapine.
Wendy	Raymond	7 Hidden Valley Rd	Monrovia	CA	U.S.	These has been going on for decades. Our oceans are being trashed beyond repair. Do Something. Anything. Now.
Warren	Grossman	15 North Austin Avenue	Ventnor City	NJ	U.S.	These living organisms do much to preserve sea life and must not be ravaged by the fishing industry.
John	Ogden		St. Petersburg	FL	U.S.	These long-lived, slow growing deep sea coral communities are extraordinarily vulnerable to trawling. Do the right thing and help to protect them from utter destruction. Thank you.
Beverly	Simone	222 Van Houten Flds	West Nyack	NY	U.S.	These precious areas need to be protected from stupid, short-sighted, destructive fishing practices.
Sibyll	Gilbert	41 Game Farm Rd	Pawling	NY	U.S.	These recommendations are reasonable and necessary to preserve life in the deep.
Maria	Nowicki	2324 14th Ave	San Francisco	CA	U.S.	These reefs are a vital part of an ecosystem that must be protected, not destroyed.
Laurel	Dorr	330 Candler St NE	Atlanta	GA	U.S.	These reefs are breeding grounds. Please protect them.

Chris	Candell		Oakland	CA	U.S.	These seem like rainforests on land, much more interdependent than we thought so more of the area needs to stay intact, bottom fishing is simply not compatible with this.
Claire	Joaquin		Pollock Pines	CA	U.S.	These trawlers exacerbate the problems with ocean warming. We need all the healthy deep-sea corals to provide habitat for sea creatures. Trawlers over-fish for naked profit. It hurts our earth.
Elizabeth	Goodwin	2062 Vine St	Hollywood	CA	U.S.	These treasures of the sea must be protected.
Claire	Cohen	5051 Foothills Dr	Lake Oswego	OR	U.S.	They are so beautiful!

Amanda	Guthrie	PO BOX 61	Montello	NV	U.S.	Think about your children and grandchildren, shouldn't they be able to see these wonder ocean ecosystems? Thank you for listening.
Nancy	Palter	1506 Corinth Ave	Los Angeles	CA	U.S.	Think of the long run. It's all fragile for all of us in every environment
Linda	Bessom	33 Matignon Rd	Cambridge	MA	U.S.	This action is in line with The Earth Charter.
Aaron	Kornbluth		Silver Spring	MD	U.S.	This action will set a precedent for future actions by other Councils, and is in line with your commitment to promote EBFM. Thank you for protecting as much of the deep sea within your jurisdiction as possible so that we can ensure that these fragile and poorly understood ecosystems can remain as resilient as possible given the slew of threats they face.
Raymond	Gettins	218 Worthington Ave	Wyoming	OH	U.S.	This cannot be undone - we need to get it right the first time.
Richard	McCarthy	341 Saint Lawrence	Buffalo	NY	U.S.	This coral supports a multitude of aquatic life. Without it they cannot and will not exist
Jed	Holtzman	847 Scott St.	San Francisco	CA	U.S.	This egregiously short-sighted behavior simply cannot be allowed to continue. This is irreversible and permanent damage to our planet for a small profit for a small number of people.
H. Dennis	Shumaker	402 W Market St	Marietta	PA	U.S.	This fragile & vitally important environment must be left alone & undisturbed. We have no right to harm deep-sea (or any) corals & all such activity must be prevented through stringent legislation, & well funded enforcement & interdiction by the world's navys.

maggie	vaughn	815 S 1st Ave	Coquille	OR	U.S.	This greedy practice has gone n Far Too Long!
L.M.	Ashley	2450 28th Ave	Sacramento	CA	U.S.	This habitat is far more important to ecosystem than short term reckless financial gain for a few.

Matt	Rigney		Conway	MA	U.S.	We have destroyed the fishing grounds within easy reach, and the consequences have been ignored by decades. Are we a species capable of foresight and restraint--for our own self-interest at least? On what grounds do companies have the right to destroy ecosystems whose services to the ocean and to us have not even been quantified? Who stands to benefit?--far too few to justify it.

Please do the right thing here, at this critical time, and prevent deepwater trawls in the mid-Atlantic.

R. David	Jones	4168 24th St. #A	San Francisco	CA	U.S.	You in-compassionate greedy people need to think of what your leaving to your children..a barren ocean and a dead planet - WAKE UP !!
MICHAEL	CARPENTER		BOURNEMOUTH		U.K.	YOU ONLY HAVE ONE CHANCE TO SAVE THE SEA'S DEEEP SEA CORALS
Penny	Nichols	16566 Butts Canyon Road	MIDDLETOWN	CA	U.S.	You would think that protecting the oceans would be a fisheries first concern. How will they make a living when they are destroyed.
Lori	Zeller		21009	MD	U.S.	Your grandchildren would be proud to say you fought for the deep sea corals so one day they can see the beauty for themselves. Please help stop the bottom fishing that destroys these wonderful and needed creatures.
Judith	King	137 35th Sq SW	Vero Beach	FL	U.S.	Your help is needed. Please protect our ecosystems.
Pablo	Fernandez		New York	NY	U.S.	Your reason for destroying them is shallow, self-serving and ruthless...
