

TV GUIDE

Did you ever think there might be some truth in those cheesy 90s sitcoms? Maybe there was more than canned laughs, sassy high schoolers and cute kids. What if there was something deeper in those sappy moral lessons and endless-romance plot lines?

In our TV Guide message series, we'll take a look at Saved By the Bell, Fresh Prince of Bel-Air, Full House, and Friends to see what they can teach us about ourselves, others, and God.

Become intentional as you spiritually lead your family, your friends or yourself with @Home! Select ideas from this guide for an easy way to share with your family what you learn at Grace @Home!

ARTICULATE YOUR FAITH

Intentional times to talk about God's Word

1. What is the difference between this temporary life and timeless truth?
2. Why is it easier to serve ourselves than others?
3. Do you see other people through the lens of differences or similarities? Which was Jesus' focus?
4. What makes the gospel life-changing and not just a morally good idea?
5. What are some of the consequences of following Jesus?

PERSONALIZE SCRIPTURE

Spontaneous times to relate your everyday life to God's Word

Over the course of this series, look for redemptive themes in the movies and TV shows you watch. Discuss them with your family.

WORSHIP WITH YOUR LIFE

Show what God has done in your life to others

In our current society, TV and technology can play such a central role in our lives. Challenge your family to have a media fast for a certain time each day or for a whole week/weekend. Use that time to intentionally serve others, have media-free family time, or anything else that could replace the time you normally spend watching TV.

DIALOGUE WITH GOD

Prompts to pray with your family

Dear Lord, thank You for the timeless truth You provided in the Bible. Help our family to be able to apply that truth to this temporary life. Help us find biblical truths in the media we see every day. Amen.
