INTROIT

Standing on the Promises

PROMISES

Combined Chancel and Karen Choirs; June Bailey, conductor; Louie Bailey, piano

Standing on the promises of Christ my King, through eternal ages let his praises ring –
“Glory in the highest,” I will shout and sing, standing on the promises of God.

REFRAIN: Standing, standing, standing on the promises of God my Savior;
Standing, standing, standing on the promises of God.

Standing on the promises that cannot fail, when the howling storms of doubt and fear assail,
By the living Word of God I shall prevail, standing on the promises of God. REFRAIN

Standing on the promises I cannot fall, listening every moment to the Spirit’s call,
Resting in my Savior as my all in all, standing on the promises of God. REFRAIN

R. Kelso Carter, 1886

CHORAL OFFERING

We Are the Lord's LONDONDERRY AIR, arr.
Chancel Choir; June Bailey, conductor; Louie Bailey, piano

We are the Lord's. His all-sufficient merit, sealed on the cross to us this grace accords.
We are the Lord's and all things shall inherit; whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.
We are the Lord's. Then let us gladly tender our souls to him in deeds, not empty words.
Let heart and tongue and life combine to render no doubtful witness that we are the Lord's.
We are the Lord's. No darkness brooding o'er us can make us tremble while this star affords
A steady light along the path before us: faith's full assurance that we are the Lord's.
We are the Lord's. No evil can befall us in the dread hour of life's fast loos'ning cords;
No pangs of earth shall even then appall us. Death shall be vanquished, for we are the Lord's.
