BIBLE-BATTERED AND DOGMA-BIT: A TIME TO HEAR AND HOPE FOR HEALING WITH LGBTQ FOLK

DATE and TIME: Saturday, October 25, 1:00 –4:00 PM

Keynote Speaker: Robin Lunn, Executive Director, Association of Welcoming and Affirming Baptists, will contextualize the need for this safe-place of listening.

Purpose: This "Assembly of the Injured" is a time when doors and ears are open to folks who feel bruised and broken by some aspect of church teachings and/ or actions regarding sexuality, no matter what denomination has clouded the past.

Breakout Groups: "They Broke Me Trying to Fix Me" and "Home-Grown Hurt"
There will be a time of sharing at the end of the session.

THE PARABLES OF JESUS READ THROUGH MULTIPLE LENSES: LEVINE'S, DUKE'S, OURS

You are invited to join the Pastors' Class as we explore some of Jesus' parables over the next several months. We will be looking at perspectives on various parables presented in Amy Jill Levine's new book Short Stories of Jesus. Dr. Levine is University Professor of New Testament Studies at Vanderbilt Divinity School. Our studies will be buffeted by a book by Dr. Paul Duke on the parables. We meet in room 211 beginning at 9:30 AM on Sunday mornings.

READING GROUP OCTOBER 30

This month's selection for the Reading Group is Barbara Kingsolver's Animal, Vegetable, Miracle: A Year of Food Life. The book details her family's attempt to eat only locally grown food for an entire year and improving the family's diet by eating only foods that her family was able to grow themselves or obtain locally (save for grains and olive oil). Softback copies are available at a discount at Carmichael's – just mention the CHBC Reading Group. Read and join us on Thursday, October 30 at 7:00 PM in the Parlor for an interesting discussion.
