PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Brittani M. Bair

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

INVITATION TO DISCIPLESHIP AND COMMUNITY

Jason W. Crosby

We gladly welcome all who desire to unite with the community of faith at Crescent Hill Baptist Church to come forward during the Hymn of Response and share that decision with the minister.

*HYMN OF RESPONSE

The Summons

KELVINGROVE

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

POSTLUDE

Improvisation on NICAEA

Louie Bailey

* Worshipers are invited to rise, in body or spirit.

These lovely flowers are in memory of three lovely people who we remember with gratitude daily.

The pink roses are for Margaret Cole, whose birthday would be this Wednesday.

The tulips and lilies are for Samuel Adams and Jennifer Goodhue. In ten years our love for them has not dwindled.

- Worshipers are requested to turn off all cell phones and pagers.
- CDs of today's service are available in the sound booth following the service.
- Texts are reprinted by permission of CCLI License 1801331 and One License A718444.
- The banners you see today represent some of the ways God with us has created family. As you study the banners we suspect that each of us will see them differently. Some of you may see a gay couple while others will see two brothers. Some of us will see several women together as individuals while others will see a Sunday School Class that has become family.

As a community of faith, we hope these banners remind us of the many ways God's love and grace are expressed to us and through us as FAMILY. To those outside this community we hope these banners say to you and your family that you are welcomed here. We want to experience and learn what family means to you and yours.

The background fabric was saved from the estate of Ada Lee Kane. Recycled church banners and Karen fabrics were used to create the people and their clothes. Worship Team members Brian Williams, Diane Taylor, and Joyce DeBoe designed and created the banners.
