February 11 – Michael Jones on the Jug Band Music's Louisville Roots – Tune in to Louisville's jug band music history with local writer Michael Jones and discover a tradition that has left a lasting impression on America's musical culture.
February 18 – Ash Wednesday Service in the Chapel at 6:15 PM – Join us as we enter into the Lenten season and remember through song, scripture, prayer, and reflection that it is through the mystery of Christ's resurrection that we find our salvation. Ashes will be imposed.
February 25 – Getting Grief Right Led by Jason Crosby

Our church family has mourned the death of many in recent days. Given these recent losses, we will examine grieving more closely. We will consider ways in which grief plays itself in ways other than that described by the well-known stages of grief – denial, anger, bargaining, depression, acceptance.

READING GROUP JANUARY 29

The Reading Group will begin 2015 with Vintage Munro, a classic collection of Nobel Laureate Alice Munro's brilliant, revelatory short stories. "Alice Munro is often able to say more in 30 pages than an ordinary novelist is capable of in 300. She is a virtuoso of the elliptical...the master of the contemporary short story. ...Munro, like few others, has come close to solving the greatest mystery of them all: the human heart and its caprices." (from the Nobel Prize in Literature 2013 Presentation Speech) Join us on Thursday, January 29 at 7:00 PM in the Church Parlor. Paperback copies of the book are available at a discount at Carmichael's. Just mention the CHBC Reading Group.

COMING OPTIONS IN SPIRITUAL FORMATION

1. The History of Christian Spirituality: A 12 week course taught by Dr. Glenn Hinson
Beginning on Wednesday, February 18, 10:30 AM – Noon, in the church parlor
A study of the way Christians have sought to deepen their covenant with God through the centuries from Jesus up to our own day.
2. Death and Eternal Life: What Cosmology, Ecology, and Eschatology Tell Us about the End of Our World; taught by Bill Thomason
Some day (in the very far future) the universe will come to an end. And every human being on the face of the earth (in the not-so-far- future) will die. How can we reconcile what science tells us about our origins and ends with what we affirm about God as creator of a good universe and the source of life? These are some of the questions we will address in the adult elective course outlined below. If you are not currently engaged in a Sunday School class (or are in a class that would like to take a break from its usual curriculum) and are interested in exploring these issues, you are welcome. This course, which begins on February 8, will be hosted by the Solidarity Sunday School class and will meet at 9:30 AM in Heritage Hall.
