WELCOME THE GEORGETOWN COLLEGE PRESIDENT

Dr. M. Dwaine Greene joins us for worship today. Last year, Dr. Greene became the twenty-fourth President of Georgetown College. Dr. Greene, an accomplished administrator, came to Georgetown from Campbell University, a Baptist institution in Buies Creek, North Carolina, where he was academic vice president and provost from 2001-2013. We are delighted to meet and welcome him.

WORSHIP SERVICES INTERPRETED IN A SECOND LANGUAGE

Beginning this past Sunday morning our worship service are being interpreted in a second language, American Sign Language. Shay Morton, a recent UofL graduate, will be with us each Sunday, Our service is heard live in the Karen language thanks to a Karen interpreter who restates what is said in English in Karen from the sound booth located in the balcony to listeners though receivers and ear buds. We give thanks to God that more people will be able to more fully participate in worship at CHBC in the days to come.

DIERSEN HOUSE WORSHIP IN JUNE

A group of CHBC folk will be leading worship at the Diersen House, halfway house for incarcerated women, on Tuesday, June 16. Let Jason know if you are interested in participating.

A contingent from CHBC will be walking in the LOUISVILLE PRIDE PARADE on June 19. More details to come soon. If interested in walking or if you have questions, contact Jason.

THANK YOU

Our hearts were blessed last Sunday by your presence at our graduation celebration for Millie and Cameron. Thank you for all your kind words of support all through their journeys and the lasting sentiments voiced in your cards and journal entries. Their lives have both been enriched by knowing you.
