SOWING A NON-VIOLENT CITY CONFERENCE

Conference: Saturday, September 26 - 8:30 to 4:30 PM; Christ Church Cathedral, 421 South Second St

Youth Activities: Friday, September 25 - 6:00-9:00 PM; South Louisville Community Center, 2911 Taylor Blvd

Concerned about the devastation of gun violence in Louisville and throughout the nation, The Sowers of Justice Network and a growing list of sponsors and endorsers are presenting this conference featuring a powerful series of speakers and breakout workshops focusing on the need for alternative ways to address gun violence. It is critical to show that people of faith and compassion in Louisville care about this issue and to create ways to respond to our culture of gun violence. The event will include testimony about the epidemic of gun violence and actions to address it with voices from different sectors in our community including activists, writers, government and faith leaders. Registration is $20 and online registration is available at sowinganonviolentcity.eventbrite.com. Includes lunch. Scholarships available. Full information about the conference can be found at sowersofjusticenetwork.org.

READING GROUP

The Reading Group will convene on Thursday, September 24 at 7:00 PM in the Church Parlor to discuss I Am Malala: The Girl Who Stood Up for Education and Was Shot by the Taliban. This courageous young woman, who won the Nobel Peace Prize, continues to work for change all over the world. Discounted copies of the book are available at Carmichael's; mention the CHBC Reading Group.

INTRODUCTION TO THE NEW TESTAMENT CLASS

Beginning Wednesday, September 9, Dr. Glenn Hinson will offer a class entitled Christian Beginnings and the Gospels. The class will meet in the Parlor from 10:30 AM-12:00 PM. Please call the church office to sign up for this class. We are so blessed to have the benefits of Dr. Hinson's years of scholarship and gracious sharing of that knowledge.

SOCIAL JUSTICE MOVIES BEGIN AGAIN

Sommersby will be the first movie of this year's season of films sponsored by the Social Justice Team. This 1993 adaptation of The Return of Martin starring Richard Gere and Jodie Foster is the story of a man who returns to his home town after a lengthy absence spent fighting in the US Civil War. Although his apparent character transformation arouses his wife's and others' suspicions, everyone is delighted when his tobacco-growing scheme is profitable for the whole town. Just as he is settling into an idyllic routine with his family, he is accused of the murder of a man killed many years before. Join the group on Friday, September 18 at 7:00 PM in the Parlor for an enjoyable evening of movie viewing and conversation.

WOMEN'S RETREAT

Plans are underway for the annual CHBC Women's Retreat scheduled for Friday-Saturday, October 9-10 at Kordes Enrichment Center in Ferdinand, Indiana. Watch upcoming publications for more details and registration information.

What? Empower West Summit

When? Wednesday, September 23 at 7:00pm

Where? St. Stephen Baptist Church, 1018 S. 15th St., Louisville, KY 40210

Why? Following the shooting at Mother Emanuel AME Church in Charleston, SC in June, a group of pastors and leaders from predominantly white and black, east end and west end churches began meeting weekly. Those around the table, including Jason Crosby, have learned much from those dialogues about racism, the current state of West Louisville, and ways to resolve the problems before us. That group will share some of what has been gleaned from time together with the community so that divides between us may continue to be bridged.

How? You can meet us at St. Stephen or you can ride on the church bus to St. Stephen, which will depart CHBC at 6:30 that evening.
