TRIBUTE CONCERT FOR MIKE TUNNELL

A tribute concert for Mike Tunnell will be held on Sunday, February 21 at 3:00 PM in our sanctuary. The bands performing include President Lincoln's Own Band, the Derby City Brass Band, and Kentucky Baroque Trumpets. No admission. CDs and videos will be available at the concert. This will be a very moving concert. Please share this with others.

READING FOR FEBRUARY PART 1

Can black Louisvillians hear their history while avoiding the destructive reaction of anger or revenge and instead respond to a call for justice and opportunity?

Can white Louisvillians move beyond guilt and fear in order to address justly the myriad ways that blacks are still treated as if they are less human than whites?

What will we do with the connection between our shared history and today's racial imbalance?

How do we rectify the reality that the fruit of white wealth, even to this day, is rooted in soil tilled by enslaved people?

The Half Has Never Been Told Citywide BookClub Event sponsored by EmpowerWest is bringing author Edward E. Baptist to Louisville to speak about his work on Monday, February 29 at 7:00 PM at Highland Baptist Church. Free tickets may be ordered by contacting <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/the-half-has-never-been-told-citywide-bookclub-event-with-author-edward-e-baptist-tickets-21284325992>. Discounted copies of the book are available in the church office for $28.00.

SOCIAL JUSTICE MOVIE

February's selection sponsored by the Social Justice Team is Ex Machina, a 2015 science-fiction thriller which has been nominated for best original screenplay. It tells the story of Caleb, a 26 year old coder at the world's largest internet company, who wins a competition to spend a week at a private mountain retreat belonging to Nathan, the reclusive CEO of the company. But when Caleb arrives at the remote location he finds that he will have to participate in a strange and fascinating experiment in which he must interact with the world's first true artificial intelligence, housed in the body of a beautiful robot girl. The movie will be shown on Friday, February 19 at 7:00 PM in the Parlor. Please join us for the movie and conversation.

DIVORCE RECOVERY WORKSHOP BEGINS TONIGHT

If you are considering divorce, going through it now, or rebuilding your life afterward, the group invites you to its 35th annual Divorce Recovery Workshop on February 14, 21, 28, and March 6, from 5:00 - 7:30 PM. All four programs will be free and open to the public. For more information and to register, visit our website; www.divorcerecoverylouisville.org or register at the door.

READING FOR FEBRUARY PART 2

The Crescent Hill Reading Group has chosen Sarah Garland's Divided We Fail: The Story of an African American Community That Ended the Era of School Desegregation as its selection for February. The book examines why school desegregation, despite its success in closing the achievement gap, was never embraced wholeheartedly in the black community as a remedy for racial inequality.

The group will meet on Thursday, February 25 at 7:00 PM in the Church Parlor. Read this book by one of Crescent Hill's own and join us for stimulating conversation. Copies are available at the library; discounted copies are available at Carmichael's – just mention the CHBC Reading Group.

VALENTINE CAKE AUCTION

Sunday, February 14, 9:15 AM-12:15 PM

Stop by Birchwood and bid on some sweets!

All proceeds go to fund Youth Passport camp this summer.

THIS WEDNESDAY

Erin Woggon, a senior at Manual High School and CHBC member, recently earned national recognition for an article she wrote about being a young Muslim female in Louisville. Erin is co-editor of Manual's student publication. She will read portions of that article this Wednesday, February 17.
