We Gather at Your Table, Lord

Tallis Canon

We gather at your table, Lord: we humbly lift our hearts to you!
Here all are welcomed, all restored, and all are given work to do.

We share this meal and we are fed. such basic gifts become your sign:
We see you broken in the bread; we know your love in common wine.

God, pour your Spirit on us all, and on these gifts that we receive;
For in Christ's presence we recall his life and death, and so believe.

From North and South, from West and East, now reconciled, we gather near;
We taste your Kingdom's banquet feast, so finding strength to serve you here.

CHORAL OFFERING

Neither Death Nor Life

Jonathan Crutchfield

Chancel Choir; Beth Wade, soprano; June Bailey, conductor; Louie Bailey, piano; John Little, horn

When we lose our hold, we are held, held in the everlasting arms.
My sheep hear my voice and they know me, and they follow me
And I give them eternal life. And they shall not die forever.
For I am sure that neither death nor life will ever, nor things now,
Nor things to come will ever, nor mighty powers, nor height nor depth,
Will ever separate us from the love of God.
No one will snatch them from my hand. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them.
For I am sure that neither death nor life will ever, nor things now,
Nor things to come will ever, nor mighty powers, nor height nor depth,
Will ever separate us from the love of God. I am sure.
This is the voice of eternal life.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
