NON-FOOD ITEMS NEEDED FOR UCHM

ADVENT BOOKLET

During the Advent season, we remember the bounteous gifts of hope, peace, joy, and love that were brought into our world at Christ's birth. One style of ornamentation that helps us remember the bounty of blessings we received and continue to receive due to Christ's presence is Della Robbia, named after the Italian artist Luca della Robbia, and widely known for Christmas wreaths, typically comprised of greenery and fruit – symbols of the presence of God's abundant blessings graciously bestowed upon us.

To help us all celebrate the blessings of hope, peace, joy and love brought into our lives by Christ this Advent season, we will once more be compiling an Advent Devotional Booklet. You are invited to consider moments when you have experienced the gift of God's hope, peace, joy, and love in life. This question is one to consider as you construct your devotion. If you wish to go in a different direction, that is welcome too.

We ask that devotions adhere to the following format.

1. Begin with a short scripture passage or single verse.
2. Your reflection (not including the text and prayer) be no longer than 300 words.
3. Close with a brief, one or two sentence, prayer.

Please submit your devotions to Andrea AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. Submissions via email (andrea@chbcky.org) are strongly encouraged, but not essential. Hard copies of your devotional submissions will be gladly received as well. The booklet will be available for pick-up beginning Sunday, November 27 in various locations around the church. We also plan to make the devotions available online this year, on the church web-site and Facebook page.

CHURCH COUNCIL ELECTIONS

It is time to nominate and elect new members to the Church Council. Four new members will be chosen to begin three-year terms 2017-2019. A list of eligible members is available. You may nominate up to four persons; place your ballot in the offering plate or in the box in the church office by Sunday, November 20.
