PROTECTING LGBT RIGHTS IN KENTUCKY

Monday, January 23 at 7:00 PM

Crescent Hill Baptist Church Sanctuary

Recent changes in both state and federal government leadership pose new threats to rights recently extended to LGBT individuals. Panelists will discuss what challenges are or may emerge to LGBT individual's rights at both the state and federal level. The panelists will also share suggestions regarding ways in which those seeking to preserve and advance LGBT rights can most effectively do so in our current context. Panelists include:

- Catherine Chapman, Executive Director of the Association of Welcoming and Affirming Baptists
- Chris Hartman, Executive Director of the Fairness Campaign
- Michael Aldridge, Executive Director of the American Civil Liberties Union of Kentucky

SIMMONS SCHOLARSHIP

Many people who have taken advantage of opportunities made available by EmpowerWest feel compelled to invest resources to help black individuals in our community reach their full potential. Thus, some among us at Crescent Hill Baptist hope to provide a $1,000 scholarship annually to a student at Simmons College of Kentucky. Our scholarship, The Crescent Hill Baptist Church Scholarship, will likely go to support a Simmons student beginning their sophomore year and will be awarded annually to that same student each additional year that particular individual is a student at Simmons. Simmons College of Kentucky, Kentucky's lone private Historically Black College, is dedicated to educating people in the urban context through strong academic and professional programs in order that they may become productive citizens and agents of change in society. Those wishing to contribute may do so by making donations to Crescent Hill Baptist Church with a notation that your gift is for the "Simmons Scholarship."
