NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Another Sunday School Class option will be available beginning TODAY. The class will be led by Lee Whitlock and Vanessa Armstrong. The new group will meet in Room 215. This class will use the Formations Sunday School curriculum. If you want to deepen your relationship with God and understanding of the Bible, please join with this small group or others that meet on Sunday morning.

About Formations:

Formations was first introduced in 1991 when Baptist churches joining the newly-formed Cooperative Baptist Fellowship wanted a Sunday School curriculum to call their own. For 25 years, Formations has brought lessons from hundreds of Baptist writers from hundreds of Baptist churches around the country into Bible study classes each Sunday. Why only hear from one voice week after week, when instead you can learn from the many — male and female, urban and rural, young and not-so-young? Formations holds to the Baptist principle that the Spirit can and should speak through each of us.

Formations follows a structured annual plan that provides a steady, well-balanced diet of faith-based study. Built in a format that encourages both individual reflection and group discussion, Formations will guide your class in a journey through biblical passages and issues that create meaningful and life-changing connections.

BRIGHT STAR CHBC

Burmese government oppressed.
Had to flee my native land
for my life, my safety.
In a refugee camp I lived,

With no hope and no future.
In the camp I stayed idle,
In a small bamboo hut,
Depending on donations.

For my family's future
I resettled in Louisville,
Kentucky, USA.
CHBC is now part of my family.

Warmly you welcome.
As a mother you care.
You lead as a great leader.
As a good servant you serve.

For Karen, CHBC is
A crystal bright star we see
Amid darkness. You shine
In destruction, and hope we find.

Thank you CHBC
For your generosity,
Your helping hand and love.
We will always remember.

On behalf of Karen community in Louisville
