NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

A new Sunday School Class led by Lee Whitlock and Vanessa Armstrong began on Sunday, March 5. The class is meeting in Room 215 and is using the Formations Sunday School curriculum. If you want to deepen your relationship with God and understanding of the Bible, please join with this small group or others that meet on Sunday morning. Formations follows a structured annual plan that provides a steady, well-balanced diet of faith-based study. Built in a format that encourages both individual reflection and group discussion, Formations will guide your class in a journey through biblical passages and issues that create meaningful and life-changing connections.

HENRY MUGABE TO SPEAK AT BELLARMINE

Bellarmino University's Department of Theology, Peace Studies Program, and the Vernon Robertson Endowed Lecture Series will be bringing Dr. Henry Mugabe to speak on a "Dialogue between African Traditional Religion and Christianity: A Zimbabwean Perspective." The lecture is free and open to the public and will be given on Tuesday, March 21 at 7:00 PM in Hilary's. Dr. Mugabe is a graduate of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and an international guest brought to the U.S. by the Society of Christian Ethics this year.

SOCIAL JUSTICE MOVIE

March's Social Justice movie is Spotlight, a 2015 film telling the true story of how the Boston Globe uncovered the massive scandal of child molestation and cover-up within the local Catholic Archdiocese, shaking the entire Catholic Church to its core. It will be shown Friday, March 17 at 7:00 PM in the Church Parlor. All are welcome to come and join in the discussion following.

LIVE WIRES

Our Live Wires group will resume monthly meetings after a brief winter hiatus. On Monday, March 20 they will gather in Fellowship Hall to hear Kentucky native and author Betty Stokes, a longtime educator with more than 36 years of experience in public and private schools as a teacher and administrator. Betty's interest in Kentucky history inspired her work as an author of children's literature. Her books are about William Clark, George Rogers Clark, Daniel Boone and Abraham Lincoln. Lunch will follow at noon; cost is $7.00. Make your reservation by Thursday, March 16.

A READING GROUP CLASSIC

The Reading Group will read and discuss an American classic, A Tree Grows in Brooklyn, on Thursday, March 30 at 7:00 PM in the Church Parlor. Last fall the group read When Books Go to War, the story about books made available to service personnel during World War II, and discovered that A Tree Grows in Brooklyn was the most requested volume. So we decided it was time we re-read it.

Emilie Coulter of Amazon.com writes: "Francie Nolan, avid reader, penny-candy connoisseur, and adroit observer of human nature, has much to ponder in colorful, turn-of-the-century Brooklyn. Like the Tree of Heaven that grows out of cement or through cellar gratings, resourceful Francie struggles against all odds to survive and thrive. Betty Smith's poignant, honest novel created a big stir when it was first published over 50 years ago. Her frank writing about life's squalor was alarming to some of the more genteel society, but the book's humor and pathos ensured its place in the realm of classics--and in the hearts of readers, young and old. "

Softback copies are available at a discount at Carmichael's when you mention the CHBC Reading Group. Re-acquaint yourself with this classic—or discover it for the first time. Join us for lively conversation and warm fellowship.
