SCRIPTURE LESSON

Genesis 32:22-31

Eileen Bartlett

The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had.

Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

The word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

CHORAL OFFERING

Come to the Table of the Lord

Patrick M. Liebergen

Chancel Choir; June Bailey, conductor; Louie Bailey, piano; Allison Hammons, flute

Come, eat the bread at the table of the Lord; the bread of life shall set you free.

Come, eat the bread at the table of the Lord; on the cross my Savior died for me.

Come, drink the cup at the table of the Lord; his blood was poured at Calvary.

Come, drink the cup at the table of the Lord; now he lives! Proclaim the victory, he died for me!

As prophets long ago foretold, the Son of God we now behold;

He came to earth from God above, the King of love!

He gave his life at Calvary, he died for me! My Savior lives eternally!

Come, Christians, come to the table of the Lord; the bread and cup are here to share.

Come, Christians, come to the table of the Lord; be with him in his loving care.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
