Reformation Roots: Fruitful Seeds, Singing Heritage, Sustaining Faith

Celebrate the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation through study, worship, and music! A three-day festival will take place October 27-29.

Friday, October 27, 5:30 pm | St. John's

Keynote speaker Rev. Dr. Mark Bangert from the Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago will help us explore a variety of topics related to Martin Luther and the Reformation. Services of Evening Prayer and Compline, led by Pastor Rachel Thorson Mithelman, will be held at 6:15 pm and 8 pm, between plenary sessions.

Saturday, October 28 8:30 am | Grand View University

Workshops, a service of Morning Prayer (Matins), and small-group discussions, including a "myth-busters" luncheon will take place at the Speed Lyceum in Grand View's Student Center.

Sunday, October 29, 3:00 pm | St. John's

The festival concludes with a presentation of two great masterworks: J. S. Bach's Cantata 80: A Mighty Fortress and Felix Mendelssohn's Reformation Symphony. Festival Choir and Orchestra members will represent Lutheran churches throughout the Des Moines metro area.

Blower Room Brass

Joel Gettys, Director; Rehearse Sundays, 9:00 - 10:00 am
Blower Room Brass (named for the ensemble's rehearsal location behind the organ loft) is the St. John's resident brass ensemble. Blower Room Brass plays at worship services throughout the year including Festival services. Membership is open to all trumpet, cornet, French Horn, trombone, euphonium, and tuba players. No audition required!

Chamber Orchestra

Chamber orchestra, comprised of St. John's members with Des Moines metro-area professional musicians, graces our festival worship services throughout the year. Rehearsals are scheduled prior to specific worship events.

String Scholars

String Scholars, currently comprised of students from the Drake University music department, provide musical and artistic support to the St. John's worshipping community September through May. This resident string quartet rehearses each Sunday morning from 11:00 am - 12:00 pm and participates in worship once a month and for special services and concerts. Repertoire for this ensemble is drawn from classical sacred music and newly published compositions, both hymn-based and freely composed works.

Midweek Music Series 2017-18

Please join us for performances by world-class vocal and instrumental musicians for an exciting mix of classical, folk, pop, and jazz concerts. Each 25-minute concert begins at 12:05 pm in the Sanctuary. A light lunch, priced at $6 each, is available in Weertz Hall, following the concert.

The Friends of the Arts at St. John's supports the Arts in worship and as an outreach to artists and the greater community. This valuable ministry is funded not by the general budget, but by donations from supporters and friends. Donations can be made online at stjohnsdsm.org or mailed to St. John's at 600 Sixth Avenue, Des Moines 50309 (please indicate "Friends of the Arts" on the memo line). All donors who contribute $50 or more will be recognized in future programs and receive special invitations to Fine Arts events.

All Fine Arts events are free and open to the public. If you have questions about the Friends of the Arts or would like to be active in Arts programming at St. John's, please contact Beth Ann Edwards, Director of Arts, Handbells, and Youth Choirs (bethann@stjohnsdsm.org) or Larry Hanson, chair of the Arts Visioning Team (lhanson@ft.NewYorkLife.com).
