Charm City Fringe Fest special events and happy hours will be held at Liam Flynn's Ale House (22 W. North Ave.), Joe Squared (133 W North Ave), Brewer's Art (1106 N Charles St), Golden West (1105 W 36th St), and other area bars to be announced.

"I really can't wait for it to kick off. The festival's basically doubled in size again this year, and we've got some real treats in store." said Zachary Michel, cofounder of Charm City Fringe. "The festival is truly taking on a life of its own, it's going to be a lot of fun," agrees cofounder Michael Brush.

About Charm City Fringe

Charm City Fringe Fest is an annual event and a staple of the Baltimore performing arts community. Through an annual theatre festival and regular educational community workshops, CCF works to cultivate Baltimore as a hub for theatre and the performing arts and expand and enhance creative learning opportunities for Baltimore's youth.

2014 includes an exciting collaboration for the festival as well, with Baltimore brewing stalwart Brewer's Art producing a special limited-release beer for the Fringe Festival.
