Charm City Fringe announces two-show Nights on the Fringe July 8 and 9 events to feature acrobatics, dance, comedy, film and more

BALTIMORE, MD – Charm City Fringe will present its third annual Nights on the Fringe with two shows of vaudeville-inspired acts July 8 and 9 at 7:30 p.m. at the Baltimore Theatre Project.

Both nights will be hosted by WYPR's Aaron Henkin and Gin & Jokes' Umar Khan. Friday's show features a performance by 2015 Baltimore Youth Poet Laureate Derick Ebert, hip hop by Bmore Than Dance, acrobatics by Club Sandwich and more. Aerial performers In the Dark Circus and Charm City Fringe award-winners "A Fool's Paradise" and Interrobang Theatre Company are part of the seven-act lineup Saturday.

Based on the idea of presenting a modern vaudeville experience, both nights will feature buskers, special guest appearances and a house band, the Slanted Sound.

For more information, visit www.charmcityfringe.com. Tickets are $17 for one night and $30 for both, available online or at the door.

Charm City Fringe launches its fifth Fringe theatre and arts festival this November 3-13 at venues across Hampden, Station North, and Mount Vernon. Productions include artists from across the country, with free nightly special events. Charm City Fringe was founded in 2012 by Zachary Michel and Michael Brush to celebrate and grow Baltimore's small theatre community.
