

April 24, 2017

LIZA BETH JEWELRY PARTNERS WITH NEIMAN MARCUS
FOR TRUNK SHOW TO BENEFIT SETON BREAST CARE CENTER

20% of sales at show will be donated to breast cancer center

(AUSTIN, TX)— Jewelry lovers and those seeking the perfect Mother’s Day gift will want to mark their calendar for Saturday, May 13, 2017 as Liza Beth Jewelry will partner with Neiman Marcus for a pre-Mother’s Day Trunk Show event. High-end jewelry designer Liza Beth Soklove will be displaying her exquisite custom jewelry designs at Austin’s Neiman Marcus at the Domain. The trunk show will be a “can’t miss” event and will feature Liza’s breathtaking spring collection while supporting a charitable cause that is near and dear to the designer’s heart.

Liza Beth Jewelry is committed to giving back to causes that have personally impacted the designer. “My business was founded on giving back to help others,” said Soklove. Her long-standing relationship with the Seton Breast Care Center since its inception, and the cancer survivor community as a whole, is a personal one, having lost her mother, Theresa Soklove, to metastatic breast cancer. The Seton Breast Care Center prides itself on providing the people of Austin with convenient and comprehensive care. Liza Beth Jewelry will be giving 20% of the profits from the trunk show to the Seton Breast Care Center in memory of her late mother and all who have succumbed to the disease.